INTRODUCTION

For more than five decades our Early Music Department has enjoyed a worldwide reputation as one of the largest and most important educational institutions of its kind. The department has started with a focus on the main repertoire of the Baroque era and thus gained its identity as a school for 'baroque' specialists. Currently a team of musicians who are all international authorities on their instrument is teaching historical performance practice of repertoire varying from the Renaissance up to the Nineteenth Century. While this training meets the needs of today's profession, we are aware this profession is ever-changing. We strive to prepare you for your future by continuously offering professional preparation as a common thread in the curriculum.

The Royal Conservatoire The Hague treasures collaborations of artists in many aspects, starting by ensemble playing as the most obvious. The synergy of peer learning is a hallmark of the Early Music Department, which is encouraged by a wide variety of projects organised by the institution. These projects are directed by teachers from the department with considerable experience in the relevant repertoire or by prominent guest conductors. Students also have plenty of opportunities to initiate their own projects, some of which lead to ensembles that start their career during their studies. Virtually without exception students already become part of an international network during their studies, which brings them employment once graduated. An important link to the profession -apart from the teaching staff- is offered in contacts with professionals in so called 'side-by-side projects'. Almost every project ends with one or more concerts held at various locations outside the institute in association with concert organisers.

At the beginning of the programme the emphasis in the curriculum is on basso continuo and polyphony to ensure that the pillars of baroque music become a generally understood language in their historical context, both in theoretical and practical terms. Later in the programme there is scope to widen the perspective with subjects such as rhetoric, ornamentation, diminution, style-related improvisation and baroque dance.

Because of the size of the department and the range of nationalities represented in the student body, there is close contact with developments in the field of Early Music elsewhere in the world, which allows the department to keep up to date with the very latest trends. Our recently created European Master of Early Music programme in collaboration with the Janáček Academy in Performing Arts in Brno is a good example. It is the conservatoire's guiding philosophy that every new generation of musicians will have to determine and define their own relation to the commands of historical information in their practice. For information about the Early Music Vocal Studies programme, please check the Curriculum Handbook of the Vocal Studies Department.

This Curriculum Handbook aims to provide you with all necessary information related to the curricula and courses of the Bachelor of Music in Early Music programme. After programme objectives and a schematic overview of the curricula, you will find descriptions of all courses, including learning goals (called 'objectives') and assessment criteria. We would advise you to also read the Royal Conservatoire's Study Guide, which includes the Education and Examination Regulations (EER).

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES BACHELOR EARLY MUSIC

Below you will find a set of requirements which we call programme objectives. These are the minimum requirements that you need to meet in order to obtain a Bachelor of Music degree from the Royal Conservatoire. Our programme objectives are based on the AEC Learning Outcomes (2017)<sup>1</sup>, an international qualification framework developed by the European Association of Conservatoires (AEC), which is based on a broad consultation with institutions all over Europe and experts from the music profession. The objectives have been adapted where necessary to fit the study programme of our BMus in Early Music.

The bachelor programme objectives are divided in three categories: A) practical outcomes, B) theoretical outcomes and C) generic outcomes – and are numbered for ease of reference. In the course descriptions, the field ‘programme objectives’ refers to these codes, e.g. 1.A.1, 1.B.4, 1.C.10. This means that the course contributes to obtaining the skills and knowledge described in those programme objectives. There may be several courses contributing to the same objectives.

ORNAMENTATION AND DIMINUTION

Course title:	Ornamentation and Diminution
Osiris course code:	KC-EM-DO
Course content:	The Ornamentation and Diminution course is a one-year course on melodic invention. It encompasses improvisational techniques used by musicians and singers in the 16th-18th centuries. The course is covered in three blocks. In the first block of lessons you will learn to invent a simple melodic ricercar as taught by 16th century performers/composers, and the art of inventing diminutions as it was taught in the 16th and early 17th centuries. In the second block you will learn to invent melodic preludes as taught in the early 18th century by e.g. Hotteterre, and to interpret and invent ornaments in 18th century style. The last part of the course teaches melody instrumentalists how to realise 18th century figured bass lines on their own instruments, and to see these realisations as a basis for invention. The course mostly takes the form of weekly practical workshops but, in a series of lectures, students will also be introduced to methods and compositional models familiarising them with ornamentation styles in 18thc French, Italian and German music.

MUSICA PRACTICA 1

Course title:	Musica Practica 1
Osiris course code:	KC-TH-MP1
Course content:	Baroque solfège and ear training: development of core musical skills using historical methods from the late 17th and 18th centuries. The solfège system used is heptachordal solmisation (seven-note movable solfège) such as the one described by Loulié: Éléments ou principes de musique (1696) or Monteclair: Principes de musique (1736). During this course you practise using both vocal and instrumental repertoire from the late 17th and 18th centuries, of graded difficulty, with additional exercises from well-known methods of the time, such as Solfèges d'Italie (1772). With this repertoire, you

	develop fluency in reading orthochronic notation within the basic beating patterns (in 2, in 3 and in 4). The harmonic understanding of the repertoire (consonant and dissonant intervals, consonant and dissonant chords, basic chordal progressions, etc.) is developed using ideas and structures derived from basso continuo theory and practice. Attention is given to melodic improvisation on a bass line, especially using standard bass sequences and cadences. By using historical methods and repertoire, the basic commonplaces of the musical language and of performance practice such as ornamentation (both "graces" and "diminutions"), articulation, rhythmic hierarchy and alteration, are integrated into the practice.
Objectives:	At the end of this course, you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ can sight-read 17th / 18th century repertoire (vocal and instrumental) from the original notation;</li> <li>▪ are able to use a historically appropriate solfège system for the repertoire;</li> <li>▪ are able to apply the most important commonplaces of performance practice (essential ornaments, articulation, etc.);</li> <li>▪ understand a figured bass;</li> <li>▪ recognise (both visually and aurally) the tonality of a piece: major/minor modality, tonal centre;</li> <li>▪ recognise (both visually and aurally) the intervals formed between a solo melody and its accompanying bass;</li> <li>▪ recognise (both visually and aurally) harmonic structures using the chordal concepts of basso continuo;</li> <li>▪ can improvise a melody on a simple bass line, using consonances, passing/neighbouring tones and suspensions.</li> </ul>
Programme objectives:	1.A.1, 1.A.4, 1.A.6, 1.A.8, 1.B.1, 1.B.2, 1.B.4, 1.B.6

Teachers:	Isaac Alonso de Molina
Credits:	9 ECTS
Literature:	Course reader
Work form:	Group lesson
Assessment:	There are two exams, one in each semester. Both exams are individual and practical. The level of ear-training and sight reading in connection to specific styles is assessed. The exams consist of two parts: a) sight reading a piece of the style and level of difficulty of "Solfèges d'Italie avec la basse chifrée" (Paris, 1779), volumes 1 and 2. b) improvising a melodic line on a given figured bass in Baroque style. The mark for the exam in semester 1 counts for 33%, and the mark for the exam in semester 2 counts for 67% of the final mark.

MUSICA PRACTICA 2

Course title:	Musica Practica 2
Osiris course code:	KC-TH-MP2
Course content:	Renaissance solfège and ear training: development of standard musical skills using historical methods from the 16th century. The solfège system used is hexachordal solmisation (six note solfège) as described by Lanfranco: Scintille di musica (1533), Coclicus: Compendium musices (1555), or Gumpelzhaimer: Compendium musicae (1595). During this course you practise using repertoire including polyphonic music from the late 15th to the early 17th centuries (both sacred and secular) as well as chant from sources of that time. With this repertoire, you develop fluency in reading melodic lines of modal characteristics and in white mensural notation. You develop the vertical understanding of the repertoire (consonant and dissonant intervals, intervallic progressions, etc.), using ideas and structures derived from counterpoint theory and practice. Attention is given to improvisation on a cantus firmus, on formulaic procedures for two, three and four parts and basic imitative textures (canon). By using historical methods, the basic commonplaces of the musical language and of performance practice such as ornamentation (both "graces" and "diminutions"), articulation, rhythmic hierarchy and alteration, are integrated into the practice.
Objectives:	At the end of this course, you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ can sight-read repertoire ca. 1500-1650 (vocal and instrumental) from the original notation;</li> <li>▪ are able to use a historically appropriate solfège system for the repertoire;</li> <li>▪ are able to apply the most important commonplaces of performance practice (typical ornaments, etc.);</li> <li>▪ recognise (both visually and aurally) the modal characteristics of a piece;</li> <li>▪ recognise (both visually and aurally) the intervals formed between two given melodic lines;</li> <li>▪ recognise (both visually and aurally) the standard dyadic (two-part contrapuntal) progressions;</li> <li>▪ can improvise simple formulaic counterpoint (gymel, fauxbourdon, etc.);</li> <li>▪ can improvise a melody on a given cantus firmus;</li> <li>▪ can improvise a short canon (stretto fuga) in the main intervals.</li> </ul>

PROFESSIONAL PREPARATION

TUTORING

Course title:	Tutoring
Osiris course code:	KC-AL-PF

Course content:	First-year students entering the Royal Conservatoire are assigned a tutor. You remain with this tutor for the first three years of the bachelor's programme. The tutor's role is to help you to reflect on your study and to monitor your study progress. In order to become independent reflective practitioners students need self-regulation skills and habits. The tutor can offer you several tools to develop these skills, based on your needs and preferences. In the tutoring toolbox there are 4 categories for tools: foundation, intention, attention and reflection. In the course of the study year you and your tutor will decide together which tools are interesting and relevant to explore. Appendix:	INDICATIONS OF CREDIT (ECTS) ALLOCATION AND RESTRICTIONS FOR ACTIVITIES UNDER THE CDO. LIST OF EXAMPLES: GENERAL: CDO credits are allocated on the basis of estimated contact time. Preparation time is usually seen as part of the main subject study. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Activities need to be at the level of the course, e.g. playing along with an amateur orchestra as a tutti string player or singing in an amateur choir will not usually qualify for ECTS.</li> <li>- Teaching for a few hours per week for a year = on average 3 ECTS. Maximum credits for teaching are set at 4 ECTS per year (bachelor) and 6 ECTS (master).</li> <li>- Making a website = maximum 2 ECTS.</li> <li>- Organising concerts, setting up a website, programming a concert series and other activities directed towards skills useful in a music career are all given extra value.</li> <li>- In principle, participating in KC activities/projects is not eligible for ECTS – participation is indicated in the SVO.</li> <li>- Participating in exams or presentations of student colleagues within the curriculum (e.g. final presentations of drama lessons) does not qualify for ECTS.</li> <li>- Passive attendance of masterclasses does not qualify for ECTS.</li> </ul> - Events planned but cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic can be considered for CDO credits. Students are also encouraged to include online activities and any other innovative work undertaken during lockdown conditions, or while the options for performance at venues with live audiences are scarce. CLASSICAL: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- One week working with a professional orchestra/ensemble = 2 ECTS.</li> <li>- NJO (National Youth Orchestra) winter tour = 3 ECTS.</li> <li>- EuYO/Gustav Mahler orchestras etc. = 5 ECTS.</li> </ul>

	CONDUCTING:  The Conducting Department is almost exclusively involved with the directing of ensembles, orchestras and choirs in order to gain experience and grow artistically. Students must organise their own feedback beyond their own teacher: i.e. people with whom they work and who encounter them as a conductor. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- One year rehearsing with a permanent ensemble = 3 ECTS.</li> <li>- One week with a professional orchestra (ca 15 hours rehearsal &amp; 6 hours concerts) = 2 ECTS.</li> </ul> VOCAL STUDIES: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Working on a production with a professional choir, depending on its duration, number of concerts and type of repertoire (e.g. a cappella, large-scale symphonic or contemporary) = between 2 and 4 ECTS.</li> <li>- Solo work with an amateur organisation is seen as at a suitable level but, bearing in mind the standard nature of the repertoire = on average no more than 0,5 ECTS.</li> <li>- Solo work with a professional ensemble/organisation (depending on the repertoire) = up to 2 ECTS.</li> <li>- Participation in competitions or masterclasses is seen as part of the usual main subject activities. Value depends on level, degree of involvement etc. = average 1 ECTS.</li> </ul>
