INTRODUCTION

The Master of Music in Art of Sound programme concentrates on the areas where technology is applied in the performance, production and/or recording of music. Students starting the programme are required to master advanced recording, producing and/or amplification skills. Rather than focusing on acquiring those skills, the curriculum is based on 3 pillars: artistic development, research and professional integration. The programme will be concluded with a Master Project, combining those pillars.

This Curriculum Handbook aims to provide you with all the necessary information related to the curricula and courses of the Master of Music - Art of Sound programme. After Programme Objectives and a schematic overview of the curricula, you will find descriptions of all courses, including learning goals (called 'objectives'). We would advise you to also read the Royal Conservatoire's Study Guide, which includes the Education and Examination Regulations (EER).

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES

The Programme Objectives (or 'learning outcomes') of the Master of Music in Art of Sound prescribe the minimum requirements that you need to meet in order to obtain a Master of Music degree from the Royal Conservatoire.

All objectives start with the number 2, indicating that they relate to 2nd cycle (i.e. master's level) studies. The objectives are divided in three categories – practical outcomes (A), theoretical outcomes (B) and generic outcomes (C) – and are numbered for ease of reference.

In the course descriptions, the field 'programme objectives' refers to these codes, e.g. 2.A.1, 2.A.3, 2.B.5, 2.C.1, 2.C.10. This means that the course contributes to obtaining the skills and knowledge described in those programme objectives. There may be several courses contributing to the same objectives.

The programme objectives and coding are based on the AEC Learning Outcomes¹ for 2nd cycle studies, and have been adapted where necessary to fit the study programme of our MMus in Art of Sound.

At the end of the Master of Music in Art of Sound programme, you:

ARTISTIC DEVELOPMENT

Course title:	Instrument M1
Osiris course code:	KC-AS-IM1
Course content:	The student follows the Instrument course throughout the two years of the master programme. The aim of the instrumental or vocal lessons is to support the development of the student's playing or singing skills and musicality in the main subject. The course assists the music technologist in assessing and communicating with musicians about the artistic and technical aspects of a performance. It covers aspects such as musical interpretation, quality of performance, degree of difficulty, tempo, purity and, in the case of jazz / pop, improvisational skills. At the time of registration for the master programme, the student has already made a choice for either classical or jazz / pop. In both streams, the student practices the technical skills by playing etudes and exercises. Although the aim is to achieve the highest possible technical standard, the level of progress is more important than the absolute technical level. For the two streams, musical development is defined as follows: Classical: The student plays a varied and multifaceted repertoire in which compositions from different style periods of Western music history are represented. The student learns to interpret and perform the various styles. Jazz / Pop: The student plays a varied and multifaceted repertoire in which improvisations and arrangements from various streams in Western jazz and/or pop music are represented. The student learns to improvise in the various streams.
Objectives:	At the completion of this course, the student: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> is able to play an instrument or to sing at a satisfactory musical and technical level; displays progress in musical and technical terms, (a potential for) musical growth, musical diversity and (for jazz and pop) the ability to improvise; classical: is able to interpret and perform a diverse and multifaceted repertoire in which compositions from various style periods of Western music history are represented at an intermediate to advanced level; jazz / pop: is able to interpret and perform a diverse and multifaceted repertoire in which improvisations and arrangements from various streams of Western jazz and/or pop music are represented at an intermediate to advanced level.

The assessment criteria for the Instrument M1 transitional exam are: musical development; instrumental/vocal technical development; development of ability to work independently; for jazz / pop: ability to improvise. The Instrument M1 (Classical) transitional exam consists of the live performance in front of a committee of a programme comprising one or more etudes, together with three assigned pieces from three different style periods. The student may bring an accompanist to the exam. Course title:	Main Subject M1
Osiris course code:	KC-AS-MSM1
Course content:	The individual main subject lessons are intended to give personal supervision to the student in his professional development and to guide the student in preparation for the test / exam at the end of the academic year. During these lessons the student's portfolio is discussed and he receives feedback on his work. This helps the student to develop a creative and personal audio-technical vision of sound which corresponds with the relevant musical event. The student is advised on the choice of projects and the choice of a particular working method. In that context, the creative approach, the preproduction, production and postproduction of the project, the communication during the project and the need to keep adequate administrative records of the project are explored in more depth. Although the student does not specialize in one of the directions as defined in the Art of Sound bachelor curriculum, the student may express a preference for a main subject teacher. However, the final decision about assigning a main subject teacher is taken by the department.
Objectives:	At the completion of this course, the student: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> can present a portfolio of music recordings, music productions and/or sound reinforcement projects that are the result of and/or have a strong and evident relationship with the research of the student; can present a portfolio of music recordings, music productions and/or sound reinforcement projects at a professional level; can work independently and professionally as a team leader in a music recording, music production and/or a sound reinforcement project; can express and communicate her/his artistic vision on music recordings, music productions and/or sound reinforcement projects to others involved in those projects.

Work form:	Individual lesson
Assessment:	At the end of each academic year (M1 and M2), the individual student's level in the main subject will be assessed by means of a public presentation of the student's work to a committee of teachers and to an audience. The presented work will contain 3 projects that the student has realized during the past 2 years. This exam will generally take place in June of the academic year and lasts 60 minutes.

The aim of the exam is:

to assess the musical and acoustical value of the student's work on the basis of the work presented;

to assess the student's creative approach on the basis of the work presented;

to assess the student's professional approach on the basis of the work presented.

The assessment of the musical and acoustical value of the student's work is a subjective auditory assessment of perceived sound quality, based on the following criteria:

Pitch levels and relationship (melody, harmony, register, range, tonal organization, pitch areas);

Loudness levels and relationship (program dynamic contour, musical balance, dynamic concept or form of the work);

Duration concept and relationship (rhythm, rhythmic patterns, tempo, time, density and rates of activities, patterns of duration);

Timbre (selection, modification and/or creation of sound sources, timbral balance, spectral balance, arrangement, performance intensity);

Space (spatial properties, localisation, phantom images, moving sources, distance location, sound-stage dimensions, imaging, environmental characteristics).

The assessment of the creative approach is based on the following criteria:

Originality (unique, new, surprising, personal, critical, innovative);

Relevance (socially, culturally, economically, politically, philosophically, psychologically);

Concept (musical complexity, sonic complexity, unity, form, contrast, development).

The assessment of the professional approach is based on the following criteria:

Professional practise (Operates at a professional level, operates legally, operates ethically, engages in continuous professional development, supports inclusion and diversity, supports sustainability);

Personal skills (leadership skills, decision making skills, team working skills, communication skills, reflection skills);

Organisational and management skills (Self-management skills, coaching skills, workspace management skills, quality assurance).

	The presented work is the result of and/or has a strong and evident connection with the student's research and professional integration trajectory. This connection is clearly expressed in the student's (e-)portfolio. The presentation must contain relevant audio and possibly video examples from which the examination committee can make an assessment of the candidate's technical, artistic and entrepreneurial competences. In preparation for the presentation the exam candidate must provide each individual member of the committee with a working (possibly temporary) hyperlink to the e-portfolio and the pdf project reports (written in the English language) no later than 14 days before the presentation. The student's (e-)portfolio contains a table of contents mentioning all relevant projects and clearly showing which projects the student initiated and which 3 projects will be presented. During the exams the student will submit an audio CD with the listening examples for the archives. The CD must be accompanied by documentation of all relevant information concerning composers, titles, performers, data of recording, recording locations and names and functions of those who worked on the production.

Course title:	Projects and Professional Practice M1
Osiris course code:	KC-AL-PP1
Course content:	Throughout the entire course period students will carry out professional practice projects. A professional practice project is work performed independently by a student, alone or in a team, that is part of or shows strong similarities with the work process in the regular professional practice, for example recording projects, music production projects or sound reinforcement projects. The aim of these projects is to prepare in a practical and very direct way for professional practice by learning professional skills such as recognizing and taking responsibility, working under pressure, functioning in a team and communicating and being productive in an artistic environment. A professional practice project must be carefully planned and documented. The physical evidence of the projects is kept in the student's portfolio. The project coordinator monitors the progress of the student in the portfolio and awards the relevant credit points. Factors in his decision are the degree of difficulty and creativity, the extensiveness of the project and the student's role in the project. The project coordinator monitors deadlines and, if necessary, addresses the student for not meeting these deadlines. The project coordinator does not personally supervise the projects. If active supervision of a project is needed (as in the case of a question about quality), the project coordinator can designate a supervisor. The main subject teacher (individual main subject) may provide the student with professional feedback on the basis of and by means of the portfolio. The student has to request the feedback, it is not initiated by the main subject teacher. The student may not claim any time from the individual main subject lessons for the teacher's supervision of a project. If active supervision of a project is needed (as in the case of a question about quality), the project coordinator can designate a supervisor. Every project will be carried out by one or more students, of which the master student typically functions as a team leader. Where applicable, the team leader will qualify for extra credit points for his work. The tasks of the team leader are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> initiating the project and produce the creative concept of the project; principal responsibility for and contact person for the entire project; assembling the project team; submitting a project application to the project coordinator; writing the project report and submitting the report to the project coordinator within a month of completion of the project; providing the department, in the person of the project coordinator, with the final results of the project (as a rule in the form of audio) within one month of the completion of the project; in the case of a project initiated by the student him/herself, the team leader will

	be the initiator of the project. When working in the professional practice, the student will take a responsible role, independantly or under guidance of a professional. Initiating and applying creativity is an integral part of this role. The student is in principle obliged to attend every lesson. However, it is inevitable that some lessons will be missed because of participation in a project. Students are personally responsible for minimising their absence. If projects coincide with exams or tests, exams and tests take priority. If attendance at lessons is an assessment criterion for a course, the assessment criteria set out in the in the curriculum apply; participation in a project is not an alternative to this assessment criterion. Students must take this into account in their planning. When planning projects, students must take account of the fact that obligations regarding the course always take priority over the obligations relating to projects. That applies in particular for attendance at exams and tests. With a commitment to participate in a project, a student undertakes to actually carry out the project. If, because of unforeseen circumstances or force majeure, there is a valid reason for not taking part in the project, the student concerned must arrange an adequate substitute so that the project as a whole can continue.
Objectives:	At the completion of this course, the student: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> is able to innitiate projects and to produce a creative project concept at an advanced level; is able to work independently at an advanced level in a professional environment; has acquired practical experience with working in a team at an advanced level; is able to plan and to organise at an advanced level; has advanced production skills; is able to communicate at an advanced level in a (semi-) professional environment.

Assessment:	In order to qualify for credit points, for every project an application must be submitted to the project coordinator before the project is carried out using a project application form (available on the intranet). A single project application form has to be submitted for each project containing the names and tasks of all the

	participating students and a timetable that is as accurate as possible. A project application must also be submitted for projects that are initiated or assigned by the department. The project coordinator determines the number of credit points (EC) that will be awarded on completion of the project, in consultation with the main subject teacher. Factors that will be taken into account are the educational value of the project for the individual student and the time invested by the student. The number of ECs awarded on completion of the project will be notified to the student by the project coordinator within two weeks of the application. A report has to be written for each project, which will be inserted in the portfolios of all the participating students. The report must include at least: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Substantive information, documented in such a way that a CD booklet or a programme can be compiled from it; A brief description of how the project progressed; A brief evaluation of the project, including reflection; Technical information, documented in such a way that the project can be reproduced by a third party on the basis of that documentation. The project report must be included in the student's e-portfolio and submitted to the project coordinator for assessment within one month of completion of the project. If there is an end result recorded in audio form, if necessary in combination with a video, this recorded end result must be inserted in the student's e-portfolio, accompanied by accurate and complete documentation, within one month of completion of the project. A project qualifies for the predetermined number of ECs if the following criteria are met: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The project is completed within a reasonable period. The report of the project is present in the relevant student's e-portfolio and has been submitted to the project coordinator within one month of completion of the project, and latest before July 1st of the current study year. The recorded end result (as a rule in the form of audio) has been made available to the project coordinator in the e-portfolio within one month of completion of the project, and latest before July 1st of the current study year.

MASTER 2

ARTISTIC DEVELOPMENT

Course title:	Instrument M2
Osiris course code:	KC-AS-IM2
Course content:	The student follows the Instrument course throughout the two years of the master programme. The aim of the instrumental or vocal lessons is to support the development of the student's playing or singing skills and musicality in the main subject. The course assists the music technologist in assessing and communicating with musicians about the artistic and technical aspects of a performance. It covers aspects such as musical interpretation, quality of performance, degree of difficulty, tempo, purity and, in the case of jazz / pop, improvisational skills. At the time of registration for the master programme, the student has already made a choice for either classical or jazz / pop. In both streams, the student practices the technical skills by playing etudes and exercises. Although the aim is to achieve the highest possible technical standard, the level of progress is more important than the absolute technical level. For the two streams, musical development is defined as follows: Classical: The student plays a varied and multifaceted repertoire in which compositions from different style periods of Western music history are represented. The student learns to interpret and perform the various styles. Jazz / Pop: The student plays a varied and multifaceted repertoire in which improvisations and arrangements from various streams in Western jazz and/or pop music are represented. The student learns to improvise in the various streams.
Objectives:	At the completion of this course, the student: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> is able to play an instrument or to sing at a satisfactory musical and technical level; displays progress in musical and technical terms, (a potential for) musical growth, musical diversity and (for jazz and pop) the ability to improvise; classical: is able to interpret and perform a diverse and multifaceted repertoire in which compositions from various style periods of Western music history are represented at an intermediate to advanced level; jazz / pop: is able to interpret and perform a diverse and multifaceted repertoire in which improvisations and arrangements from various streams of Western jazz and/or pop music are represented at an intermediate to advanced level.
Programme objectives:	2.A.1, 2.A.4, 2.A.5, 2.A.11 2.B.2, 2.B.4 2.C.14, 2.C.16

Assessment:	As a rule, the concluding exam in Instrument M2 takes place in May of the fourth year of the course (the exam lasts 20 minutes). The assessment criteria for the concluding Instrument M2 exam are: musical development; instrumental/vocal technical development; development of ability to work independently; for jazz / pop: ability to improvise. The Instrument M2 (Classical) concluding exam consists of the live performance in front of a committee of a programme comprising one or more etudes, together with three assigned pieces from three different style periods. The student may bring an accompanist to the exam. The course does not provide accompanists. The Instrument M2 (jazz, pop) concluding exam consists of the live performance in front of a committee of a programme comprising one or more etudes, together with three assigned pieces that differ in style and tempo. Course title:	Main Subject M2
Course content:	The individual main subject lessons are intended to give personal supervision to the student in his professional development and to guide the student in preparation for the test / exam at the end of the academic year. During these lessons the student's portfolio is discussed and he receives feedback on his work. This helps the student to develop a creative and personal audio-technical vision of sound which corresponds with the relevant musical event. The student is advised on the choice of projects and the choice of a particular working method. In that context, the creative approach, the preproduction, production and postproduction of the project, the communication during the project and the need to keep adequate administrative records of the project are explored in more depth. Although the student does not specialize in one of the directions as defined in the Art of Sound bachelor curriculum, the student may express a preference for a main subject teacher. However, the final decision about assigning a main subject teacher is taken by the department.
Objectives:	At the completion of this course, the student: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> can present a portfolio of music recordings, music productions and/or sound reinforcement projects that are the result of and/or have a strong and evident relationship with the research of the student; can present a portfolio of music recordings, music productions and/or sound reinforcement projects at a professional level; can work independently and professionally as a team leader in a music recording, music production and/or a sound reinforcement project; can express and communicate her/his artistic vision on music recordings, music productions and/or sound reinforcement projects to others involved in those projects.

Assessment:	At the end of each academic year (M1 and M2), the individual student's level in the

The aim of the exam is:

to assess the musical and acoustical value of the student's work on the basis of the work presented;

to assess the student's creative approach on the basis of the work presented;

to assess the student's professional approach on the basis of the work presented.

The assessment of the musical and acoustical value of the student's work is a subjective auditory assessment of perceived sound quality, based on the following criteria:

Pitch levels and relationship (melody, harmony, register, range, tonal organization, pitch areas);

Loudness levels and relationship (program dynamic contour, musical balance, dynamic concept or form of the work);

Duration concept and relationship (rhythm, rhythmic patterns, tempo, time, density and rates of activities, patterns of duration);

Timbre (selection, modification and/or creation of sound sources, timbral balance, spectral balance, arrangement, performance intensity);

Space (spatial properties, localisation, phantom images, moving sources, distance location, sound-stage dimensions, imaging, environmental characteristics).

The assessment of the creative approach is based on the following criteria:

Originality (unique, new, surprising, personal, critical, innovative);

Relevance (socially, culturally, economically, politically, philosophically, psychologically);

Concept (musical complexity, sonic complexity, unity, form, contrast, development).

The assessment of the professional approach is based on the following criteria:

Professional practise (Operates at a professional level, operates legally, operates ethically, engages in continuous professional development, supports inclusion and diversity, supports sustainability);

Personal skills (leadership skills, decision making skills, team working skills, communication skills, reflection skills);

Organisational and management skills (Self-management skills, coaching skills, workspace management skills, quality assurance).

	The presented work is the result of and/or has a strong and evident connection with the student's research and professional integration trajectory. This connection is clearly expressed in the student's (e-)portfolio. The presentation must contain relevant audio and possibly video examples from which the examination committee can make an assessment of the candidate's technical, artistic and entrepreneurial competences. In preparation for the presentation the exam candidate must provide each individual member of the committee with a working (possibly temporary) hyperlink to the e-portfolio and the pdf project reports (written in the English language) no later than 14 days before the presentation. The student's (e-)portfolio contains a table of contents mentioning all relevant projects and clearly showing which projects the student initiated and which 3 projects will be presented. During the exams the student will submit an audio CD with the listening examples for the archives. The CD must be accompanied by documentation of all relevant information concerning composers, titles, performers, data of recording, recording locations and names and functions of those who worked on the production.

The structure of the projects is as follows: Introduction: 1 day. During this introduction, the theme is presented, a first theoretical explanation (historical context, musical aspects, technical aspects, introduction of international experts, project preparation) and literature will be presented so that students can prepare for the practical blocks. The initial ideas for the outcome of the project is discussed. Masterclass 1: 2 days intensive coaching by an international expert. Osiris course code:	KC-AS-MP4
Course content:	Semester Project 1 ... 4 is a practice-oriented group lesson in which a theme is discussed per semester. The courses are given by international experts and are project based. The structure of the projects is as follows: Introduction: 1 day. During this introduction, the theme is presented, a first theoretical explanation (historical context, musical aspects, technical aspects, introduction of international experts, project preparation) and literature will be presented so that students can prepare for the practical blocks. The initial ideas for the outcome of the project is discussed. Masterclass 1: 2 days intensive coaching by an international expert. In this block, the students work intensively with the international expert on the theme project. A concrete assignment arises from these two days, which is carried out independently by the students. Masterclass 2: 2 days intensive by international expert. In this block, the student receives feedback on the progress of the assignment and work continues towards the end result. Presentation: the students present the results of the project to a committee of Art of Sound staff and the international expert. The result of the course is not an imitation of what has been learned. It is a creative and innovative result, created by experiment and research. The result can be individual or collective. Artistic and technical choices are motivated. The project result is presented in the form of audio, video, writing, performance or installation or a combination thereof. The project is documented in a concise report (max. 800 words, excluding addenda) which includes the following information: an explanation of the artistic concept; an explanation of the technological concept; an explanation of the relationship between the artistic and technological concept; addenda with time planning, technical information, literature specification and other relevant information.

The (e-)portfolio will be displayed during the Main Subject M1/M2 exam. Portfolio presentations are an integral and important part of this course. Students from the bachelor and master programs present (part of) their work to all fellow students as well as to an Art of Sound staff team. After the presentation, all fellow students and the Art of Sound staff team ask questions and give feedback. Students of all study years get in touch with each other and with each others work, and learn from each other and each others work. Students prepare for their exam presentation through being questioned and getting constructive feedback on their work.

Osiris course code:	KC-AL-PP2
Course content:	Throughout the entire course period students will carry out professional practice projects. A professional practice project is work performed independently by a student, alone or in a team, that is part of or shows strong similarities with the work process in the regular professional practice, for example recording projects, music production projects or sound reinforcement projects. The aim of these projects is to prepare in a practical and very direct way for professional practice by learning professional skills such as recognizing and taking responsibility, working under pressure, functioning in a team and communicating and being productive in an artistic environment. A professional practice project must be carefully planned and documented. The physical evidence of the projects is kept in the student's portfolio. The project coordinator monitors the progress of the student in the portfolio and awards the relevant credit points. Factors in his decision are the degree of difficulty and creativity, the extensiveness of the project and the student's role in the project. The project coordinator monitors deadlines and, if necessary, addresses the student for not meeting these deadlines. The project coordinator does not personally supervise the projects. If active supervision of a project is needed (as in the case of a question about quality), the project coordinator can designate a supervisor. The main subject teacher (individual main subject) may provide the student with professional feedback on the basis of and by means of the portfolio. The student has to request the feedback, it is not initiated by the main subject teacher. The student may not claim any time from the individual main subject lessons for the teacher's supervision of a project. If active supervision of a project is needed (as in the case of a question about quality), the project coordinator can designate a supervisor. Every project will be carried out by one or more students, of which the master student typically functions as a team leader. Where applicable, the team leader will qualify for extra credit points for his work. The tasks of the team leader are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> initiating the project and produce the creative concept of the project; principal responsibility for and contact person for the entire project; assembling the project team; submitting a project application to the project coordinator; writing the project report and submitting the report to the project coordinator within a month of completion of the project; providing the department, in the person of the project coordinator, with the final results of the project (as a rule in the form of audio) within one month of the completion of the project; in the case of a project initiated by the student him/herself, the team leader will

Objectives:	At the completion of this course, the student: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> is able to innitiate projects and to produce a creative project concept at an advanced level; is able to work independently at an advanced level in a professional environment; has acquired practical experience with working in a team at an advanced level; is able to plan and to organise at an advanced level; has advanced production skills; is able to communicate at an advanced level in a (semi-) professional environment.

Assessment:	In order to qualify for credit points, for every project an application must be submitted to the project coordinator before the project is carried out using a project application form (available on the intranet). A single project application form has to be submitted for each project containing the names and tasks of all the

	participating students and a timetable that is as accurate as possible. A project application must also be submitted for projects that are initiated or assigned by the department. The project coordinator determines the number of credit points (EC) that will be awarded on completion of the project, in consultation with the main subject teacher. Factors that will be taken into account are the educational value of the project for the individual student and the time invested by the student. The number of ECs awarded on completion of the project will be notified to the student by the project coordinator within two weeks of the application. A report has to be written for each project, which will be inserted in the portfolios of all the participating students. The report must include at least: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Substantive information, documented in such a way that a CD booklet or a programme can be compiled from it; A brief description of how the project progressed; A brief evaluation of the project, including reflection; Technical information, documented in such a way that the project can be reproduced by a third party on the basis of that documentation. The project report must be included in the student's e-portfolio and submitted to the project coordinator for assessment within one month of completion of the project. If there is an end result recorded in audio form, if necessary in combination with a video, this recorded end result must be inserted in the student's e-portfolio, accompanied by accurate and complete documentation, within one month of completion of the project. A project qualifies for the predetermined number of ECs if the following criteria are met: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The project is completed within a reasonable period. The report of the project is present in the relevant student's e-portfolio and has been submitted to the project coordinator within one month of completion of the project, and latest before July 1st of the current study year. The recorded end result (as a rule in the form of audio) has been made available to the project coordinator in the e-portfolio within one month of completion of the project, and latest before July 1st of the current study year.

RESEARCH

Course title:	Individual Research Trajectory M2
Osiris course code:	KC-AS-IRT2
Course content:	Research and entrepreneurship training in the master's programme centres on undertaking and completing a Master Project, where you specialise in your own field. As a rule, your artistic/musical practice will be the point of departure when choosing a topic for your Master Project and when formulating a research question. Individual research and presentation: In order to complete the requirements of the Master of Music programme, you must successfully undertake an individual Master Project, and present the findings of this project on the Research Catalogue and in a public presentation during the Master Research Symposium, which is held in March or April of each year. The format of the final presentation can vary. Individual supervising: The curriculum provides that you will have a personal research supervisor from October in the first semester of the first year up to your research presentation in March or April of the second year (20 hours over the entire course of the programme). You will be assigned a research supervisor, who will be knowledgeable in your research area. Both you and your supervisor use the online Research Catalogue as collaborative workspace (www.researchcatalogue.net). Additionally, you will receive Research Methodology supervision by a specialist in (academic) research (20 hours over the entire course of the programme). Please read the Master of Music Handbook for more detailed information.
Objectives:	At the completion of this course, the student: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> is able to formulate a clear research question, focus or problem, leading to relevant outcomes for his/her own practice as well as for the artistic field; is aware of what others have done in this area and are able to relate the research to the field of inquiry, with due regard to the correct use of sources; is able to apply research methods adequate to the research focus, questions or problems, based on a dialogue between artistic practice and reflection; is able to apply a form of documentation and presentation that supports the aims and objectives of the research, making use of both verbal/textual and non-verbal artistic material.
