COLLOQUIUM

STUDIO I: 15:00 - 16:00

The recent graduates from the NAIP department gather to discuss their professional practice, visions, current perspectives and expectations about their career as artists and its impact on its current time/space. Each artist will tell us how a specific topic of music making has changed their perspectives about their practice, while reaching a new scope of audiences and artistic expression.

Moderation: Heloisa Amaral
