INTRODUCTION

Composition is a highly intensive course which stands out for the loyalty and strong team sprit among the students and teachers. Many graduates of the Composition programme in The Hague have achieved worldwide fame, with their work being performed by prestigious ensembles at the leading opera houses, music festivals and venues all around the world. The faculty, once the birthplace of the revolutionary 'Hague School', concentrates on encouraging the creativity and versatility of the students, the conduct of research and helping students to discover their own identity as a composer.

During the course you will develop your own contemporary music practice and work with musicians in performances of your own creations. We devote a lot of attention to cooperation with creative spirits in other disciplines, improvisation and the use and development of (live) electronics. You will be able to study the production of music theatre and forms of interdisciplinary art, particularly in association with music theatre workshops, other art academies and numerous music ensembles. You will be required to manage a portfolio in which you keep a record of your activities during your studies, including your own concert recordings, programmes and reviews. In addition to acquiring a sound theoretical basis, you will gain practical experience by taking part in a great many internal and external projects. At the end of the fourth year you will give a presentation on the compositions you have produced during the course.

A specific form of education used in the Composition Department is informal education. This type of peer learning is extremely relevant and unique to our department. Outside of the lessons, students meet all the teachers, for example during projects, concerts and the Studium Generale. The result is an ongoing dialogue about quality, development and taste between students, their peers and teachers.

The Composition Department offers project-based education and has close ties with the professional field through its collaboration with ensembles such as New European Ensemble, Modelo62, Slagwerk Den Haag, Asko | Schönberg, the Nieuw Ensemble, Residentie Orkest, Ensemble Klang, Kluster 5 and with venues like Korzo, Studio Loos, Gaudeamus and the Nutshuis. The Composition Department organises numerous concerts that provide a platform for student performances outside the Conservatoire. The highlight is the annual Spring Festival, five days of non-stop performances of new compositions by the students in every conceivable genre and style. Every second year a leading international composer visits the school to give an intensive course. Guest lecturers have included John Adams, Hans Abrahamssen, Robert Ashley, Frederic Rzewski, Alvin Curran, Christian Wolff, Sylvano Bussotti, Richard Rijnvos, Jo Kondo, Magnus Lindberg and Kaija Saariaho.

Alumni of the Conservatoire's Composition Department such as Michel van der Aa, Richard Ayres, Allison Cameron, Mary Finsterer, Sam Hayden, Yannis Kyriakides, Steve Martland, Missy Mazzoli, Kate Moore, Martijn Padding, Richard Rijnvos, Michael Smetanin, Fabian Svensson and Thom Willems have achieved worldwide fame and their work is performed by the most celebrated Dutch and international musicians, orchestras, ensembles and opera companies at all the prestigious music festivals and venues.

This Curriculum Handbook aims to provide you with all necessary information related to the curricula and courses of the bachelor's programme in Composition. After Programme Objectives and a schematic overview of the curriculum, you will find descriptions of all courses, including learning goals (called 'objectives') and assessment criteria. We would advise you to also read the Royal Conservatoire's Study Guide, which includes the Education and Examination Regulations (EER).

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES BACHELOR COMPOSITION

Below you will find a set of requirements which we call programme objectives. These are the minimum requirements that you need to meet in order to obtain a Bachelor of Music degree from the Royal Conservatoire. Our programme objectives are based on the AEC Learning Outcomes (2017)<sup>1</sup>, an international qualification framework developed by the European Association of Conservatoires (AEC), which is based on a broad consultation with institutions all over Europe and experts from the music profession. The objectives have been adapted where necessary to fit the study programme of our BMus in Composition.

The bachelor programme objectives are divided in three categories: A) practical outcomes, B) theoretical outcomes and C) generic outcomes – and are numbered for ease of reference. In the course descriptions, the field 'programme objectives' refers to these codes, e.g. 1.A.1, 1.B.3, 1.C.10. This means that the course contributes to obtaining the skills and knowledge described in those programme objectives. There may be several courses contributing to the same objectives.

At the end of the Bachelor of Music in Composition programme, you:

A. Practical (skills-based) outcomes

- 1.A.1. Demonstrate ability to realise, recreate, create, manipulate and/or produce music as appropriate within your discipline or genre for practical purposes and settings.
- 1.A.2. Demonstrate effective and professionally appropriate study, practice and rehearsal techniques.
- 1.A.3. Demonstrate evidence of craft skills needed to create your own repertoire.
- 1.A.5. Engage musically in varied ensemble and other collaborative contexts, including interdisciplinary collaborations.
- 1.A.6. Demonstrate improvisational fluency, interrogating, shaping and/or creating music in ways which go beyond the notated score.
- 1.A.7. Identify key questions about, and undertake self-reflective enquiry into, your own artistic practice.
- 1.A.8. Explore, evaluate, apply and challenge existing compositional knowledge, research and performing practices.
- 1.A.9. Utilise appropriate oral, digital and practical formats to disseminate information and ideas about music.
- 1.A.10. Communicate information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialist and non-specialist audiences through a range of media and presentation formats.
- 1.A.11. Use appropriate digital technology to learn, create, record, produce and disseminate musical materials.
- 1.A.12. Evidence skills in the use of new media for promotion and dissemination.
- 1.A.13. Demonstrate a range of communication, presentation and self-management skills associated with public performance.
- 1.A.14. Recognise, engage with and respond to diverse (professional) performing contexts, spaces and audiences.
- 1.A.15. Recognise, reflect upon and develop your own personal learning style, skills and strategies.
- 1.A.16. Lead and/or support learning and creative processes in others, creating a constructive learning environment.
- 1.A.19. Develop artistic concepts and projects and the capacity to present these professionally to potential collaborators and audiences.

B. Theoretical (knowledge-based) outcomes

- 1.B.1. Demonstrate knowledge of practices, languages, forms, techniques, materials, technologies in music relevant to the discipline.
- 1.B.2. Exhibit sound knowledge of the theoretical and historical contexts in which composition is practiced.
- 1.B.3. Exhibit comprehensive knowledge of relevant representative repertoire within your area of musical study.

- 1.B.6. Recognise and respond to the fundamental processes which underlie improvisation and create musical materials aurally and/or in written form.
- 1.B.7. Evidence understanding of the means by which composers can develop, research and evaluate ideas, concepts and processes through creative, critical and reflective thinking and practice.
- 1.B.8. Demonstrate knowledge of and ability to gather and utilise relevant information found within libraries, internet repositories, museums, galleries and other relevant sources.
- 1.B.9. Identify strategies to interpret, communicate and present ideas, problems and arguments in modes suited to diverse audiences.
- 1.B.10. Display knowledge of how technology can be used in the creation, dissemination and performance of music.
- 1.B.11. Demonstrate knowledge of appropriate communication skills and their applications.
- 1.B.12. Identify a range of professional working environments and contexts, reflecting on the role of the composer in contemporary society.
- 1.B.13. Recognise the skill demands of local, national and international music fields.
- 1.B.14. Display fundamental knowledge of key financial, business and legal aspects of the music profession.
- 1.B.15. Exhibit familiarity with concepts and practices of pedagogy, in particular strategies to motivate and facilitate musical creativity and learning.
- 1.B.16. Demonstrate basic awareness of the legal and ethical frameworks relating to intellectual property rights, and how to protect them.

C. Generic outcomes

- 1.C.1. Demonstrate systematic analytical and processing skills and the ability to pursue these independently.
- 1.C.2. Demonstrate self-motivation and self-management skills, and the ability to undertake autonomous self-study in preparation for life-long learning.
- 1.C.3. Demonstrate a positive and pragmatic approach to problem solving.
- 1.C.4. Evidence ability to listen, collaborate, and voice opinions constructively.
- 1.C.5. Evidence flexibility, the ability to synthesise knowledge in real time, and suggest alternative perspectives.
- 1.C.6. Recognise the relevance of, and be readily able to adapt, previously learned skills to new contexts.
- 1.C.7. Develop, research and evaluate ideas, concepts and processes through creative, critical and reflective thinking and practice.
- 1.C.8. Respond creatively and appropriately to ideas and impetus from others, exhibiting the ability to digest and respond to verbal and/or written feedback.
- 1.C.9. Exhibit ability to utilise and apply technology in relation to your composing.
- 1.C.10. Are able to promote your professional profile, including the presentation of work in an accessible form, demonstrating appropriate IT and other presentational skills as required.
- 1.C.11. Making use of your imagination, intuition and emotional understanding, think and work creatively, flexibly and adaptively.
- 1.C.12. Recognise and reflect on diverse social, cultural and ethical issues, on local, national and international level.
- 1.C.13. Engage with individuals and groups, demonstrating sensitivity to diverse views and perspectives, and evidencing skills in teamwork, negotiation, leadership, project development and organisation as required.
- 1.C.14. Recognise and respond to the needs of others in a range of contexts.
- 1.C.16. Exhibit a long-term (life-long) perspective on individual artistic development, demonstrating an inquiring attitude, and regularly evaluating and developing artistic and personal skills and competences in relation to personal goals.

Course title	Main Subject Composition
Department responsible	Composition
OSIRIS course code	KC-CO-COI1-22; KC-CO-COI2-17; KC-CO-COI3-22; KC-CO-COI4-22
Type of course	Compulsory course
Prerequisites	You need to finish each year of this course before being allowed to enter the next. Please note that for being allowed to enter the 4th year of this course, you must have finished all compulsory 1st and 2nd year courses, including theory and educational courses.
Course content	In this course, in the first year (B1) you will receive group tuition together with all other B1 composition students (max 6). These group lesson are 3 hours a week of which the last hour is dedicated to individual consultultations. Tuition is on the art of composing, based on composition techniques, structure analyses, notation, reflection on form, development of the ear, musical content and significance, as well as the development of a personal musical language and taste and exploring relevant contemporary repertoire. Through discussions with your peers and teacher you will get substantial insight into methods and approaches of your colleagues. From the second year (B2) on, you will receive individual tuition by two main subject teachers (team teaching). The lessons are almost always linked to your assigned projects, a diversity of instrumental, vocal, electronic and interdisciplinary forms. Lessons are taught in the context of relevant philosophical, cultural and social perspectives. It is not only the craftsmanship and musical language that is developed but also your awareness and professionalism as an artist.
	Studium Generale
	An important element of the Composition main subject is the Studium Generale. This is a weekly group lesson for all students of the Composition Department (Bachelor and Master) facilitated by composition teachers. In these lessons (inter)national guests are invited to give lectures about their work but the Studium Generale is mostly a platform for students to present their own work and research. The lessons can also take a more practical form when ensembles present themselves and specific projects are initiated. The purpose of the Studium Generale element is to give students ample opportunity to discuss music matters but also matters related to political, social and cultural aspects which are relevant to society and which shape the framework in which artists work. Studium Generale is the place where students can sharpen and fine-tune their views through discussions with their peers and teachers.

	Bachelor 3 and 4 students and Master 1 and 2 students are required to do at least one presentation per academic year.
	Other students (Bachelor 1 and 2, Erasmus students, PM students etc.) can sign up for doing a presentation if time allows. Studium Generale is compulsory. Attendance 80%.
Programme objectives	1.A.1, 1.A.2, 1.A.3, 1.A.5, 1.A.7, 1.A.8, 1.A.9, 1.A.10, 1.A.11,

	1.B.12, 1.C.12, 1.C.13, 1.C.16
Course objectives	At the end of this course, you:
	■ are able to develop a musical thought into a coherent musical structure of substantial length;
	■ are able to notate your musical thoughts in any way that suits the musical language;
	<ul><li>have developed your conceptual thinking;</li></ul>
	<ul><li>have adequate skills in instrumentation;</li></ul> <ul> <li>have experience in composing works for a diversity of</li> </ul> instrumental, vocal, electronic and interdisciplinary forms;
	• are able to communicate your artistic motives, spoken and written;
	<ul> <li>have skills in production, coaching musicians, making publicity</li> </ul> and all that is relevant to produce concerts of your own music; <ul> <li>can work independently on composition assignments of</li> </ul> various nature.

Spring Festival

Course title	Spring Festival
Department responsible	Composition
OSIRIS course code	N/A, as part of Main Subject Composition
Type of course	Compulsory course
Prerequisites	Non applicable
Course content	The Spring Festival was started (under another name) in the 1960's by Dutch composer Dick Raaijmakers. Its ambition is to highlight the latest developments in contemporary music. The festival lasts four to five days and evenings in the month of April and consists of performances of work by the students of the Composition Department. Work for ensembles, soloists, electronics, improvisations and a wide range of interdisciplinary work are performed. Sometimes an (international) guest might be present and lectures/workshops are also included in the program. There is special attention for collaboration projects between the Composition Department and the other Creative Partners (Sonology, ArtScience). You work together with the teachers of the Composition Department but also with the head producer of the festival, the theatre coordinator, the EWP (electronic work place) and the sound technicians (Art of Sound). You collaborate in projects with ensembles like Modelo62, Ensemble Klang, the New European Ensemble, Kluster5, Ensemble Royaal, Scordatura Ensemble among many others and a wide range of ad hoc or special interdepartmental initiatives. Concerts/events take place in and around the Royal Conservatoire. Students take an active role in organizing performers, programming, production, coaching and making publicity for the event. It is the foremost event in the curriculum to prepare the composition students for a future career in the professional field.
Programme objectives	1.A.1, 1.A.2, 1.A.5, 1.A.9, 1.A.10, 1.A.11, 1.A.12, 1.A.14, 1.A.19, 1.B.1, 1.B.3, 1.B.9, 1.B.12, 1.C.1
Course objectives	At the end of this course, you:  are able to produce performances of your own compositions;  know how to coach musicians and how to interact with them on practical issues such as composing rehearsal schedules;  have an insight in how to budget performances;  know how to make publicity;  know how to act as a stage assistant;  have the experience to work in a group and have developed leadership as a producer;  are able to communicate professionally with workers from other disciplines.
Credits	N/A, as part of Main Subject
Level	Bachelor
Work form	Group collaboration, coaching
Work form Literature	Group collaboration, coaching - English

Scheduling	Festival: one week, production preparation: six weeks
Date, time & venue	Schedule: tba, Time: The festival takes place in April, Venue: All halls at the Royal Conservatoire, several venues in The Hague, as well as performances in public spaces.

Improv Lab

Course title	Improv Lab
Department responsible	Composition
OSIRIS course code	KC-CO-IL1-14
Type of course	Compulsory course also available as elective
•	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
Course content	Improvisation and composition are inseparably linked. Under the guidance of Oscar-Jan Hoogland and various guest lecturers, students use improvisation to search for new sounds, forms of ensemble playing and new forms of communication through music. The improvisations can be free, but also (rigidly) structured on the basis of schemas, graphic scores or any other conceivable musical scenario. Students develop solo and group improvisation skills with a strong emphasis on the concept of counterpoint. They learn to improvise a composition as a group, with a clear structure that everybody is aware of. They learn to work at the intersection of improvisation and composition, from both the composers' and the improvisers' perspective. They learn to compose based on the input of the other people present. They are introduced to, and learn to make an efficient, so-called 'instant composers'-composition that consists of very minimal material but gives maximum result through using the creativity of the performers. They learn to lead a small ensemble in an experimental set-up. They are introduced to different schools of improvisation as present in different scenes, times and cities in order to obtain a 'non-singular' idea of what improvised and composed music can be. They connect the content of the class to their general practice as artists outside the class and bring that practice into the class. Improv Lab is a group lesson and a group process. The lesson consists mainly of playing (improvising) together and the verbal analyses of these results.
Programme objectives	1.A.1, 1.A.5, 1.A.6, 1.A.7, 1.A.8, 1.A.10, 1.B.6, 1.B.9, 1.C.1, 1.C.4, 1.C.11
Course objectives	At the end of this course, you:

	• can listen to each other and make musical decisions on the spot;
	<ul> <li>realise the importance of the difference between composing and improvising (reflection in a split second versus large scale</li> </ul> reflection);
	are able to use composition and improvisation to each other's benefit: improv as a laboratory for finding new sounds and interaction, and composing-strategies used as scenarios to improvise on;
	• understand group-processes and learning to work with what your fellow artists have to offer rather than what you want 0 111	them to do.

Assessment	This course is assessed using the following exercises and assignments. All exercises/assignments will have to be passed in order to pass this course.
	■ Block 1:
	counterpoint exercises for group improvisation,
	exercises in form-awareness and responsibility ■ Blocks 2 & 3:
	working within the realm of specific scenes in the history of improvised music and reflection there upon: Berlin 90's and early 00's Chicago (Afro American music: Sun Ra and Art Ensemble of Chicago), Amsterdam (ICP duo Mengelberg Bennink), Tokyo (noise scene), New York (90's John Zorn Cobra)
	■ Block 4:
	the meeting of composition and improvisation:
	1) studying and playing in class of compositions for improvisers,
	2) creating and playing in class of original compositions by the student.
Assignment	Assignment 1
Assignment type	Active contribution to the group sessions
Assignment description	In this lesson we use the talents and specifics of the student to create the best possible program for the development of the student. Since artists can be very different and are often selected for this education because of a special uniqueness, the classes can accordingly be very different from year to year. The name of the course reflects this attitude: 'Improv Lab' - a place to learn and actively engage in the creative process. For this to work optimally the entire class is conceived as one big assignment: be creative and learn as a composer within the world of improvisation.

Assignment requirements	You are assessed on the basis of your active contribution to the group sessions. 80% attendance is required.
Assignment planning	Block 1 lessons: general exercises on improvisation and counterpoint. Block 2 & 3 lessons: visiting scenes in the history of improvised music. Block 4 lessons: composing for improvisers.
Assessment criteria	flexibility and growth: opening up to new possibilities listening and form-awareness in improvisation and instant composing • initiative in group creation, giving room to others to flourish in group creation presence, commitment and personal input

MUSICIANSHIP SKILLS

First Year Choir

Course title	First Year Choir
Department responsible	Theory
OSIRIS course code	KC-AL-K1JR-11
Type of course	Compulsory course
Prerequisites	Non applicable
Course content	The First Year Choir consists of all first year students from various departments. In weekly rehearsals you learn basic singing techniques and aural awareness, and work on choral repertoire. Sectional rehearsals can be part of the process. It is important to practice the repertoire at home, and be well-prepared for every rehearsal. The First Year Choir performs several times during the academic year, with two final concerts in March/April.
Programme objectives	1.A.1, 1.A.4, 1.A.5, 1.A.14, 1.B.2, 1.B.3, 1.B.4, 1.C.11
Course objectives	At the end of this course, you:
	<ul> <li>have gained general choral singing experience;</li> </ul>
	• have experience in singing and performing classical choral music;
	<ul> <li>have encountered basic singing techniques, such as posture,</li> </ul> breath streaming, tone resonance, articulation, etc.; <ul> <li>have had the opportunity to improve the quality of your</li> </ul> singing voice;
	<ul> <li>have practically applied sight-singing skills as well as listening</li> </ul> skills and intonation;
	<ul> <li>have experienced singing as a means of musical expression;</li> </ul> <ul> <li>have learned to work together with students from other</li> </ul> departments in an artistic context.
Credits	2 ECTS
Level	Bachelor
Work form	Choral rehearsal, section rehearsal, individual study of choral parts and concerts
Literature	t.b.d At the beginning of the academic year every choir singer has to buy a personal copy of the scores and is asked to bring it to every rehearsal and concert.
Language	English
Scheduling	Weekly rehearsals of 90 minutes, September to April

Sound Composition and Creative Technologies 1-2

Course title	Sound Composition and Creative Technologies 1-2
Department responsible	Composition
OSIRIS course code	KC-CO-ISS
Type of course	Compulsory course also available as Elective
Prerequisites	Sound Composition and Creative Technologies 1: none.
	Sound Composition and Creative Technologies 2: Sound Composition and Creative Technologies 1, or some experience with electronic/sound-based composition (each case will be examined on an individual basis).
Course content	Traditional European instruments have undergone a wide expansion predominantly from the second half of the past century. The invention of techniques intending to extend their sonic possibilities, the introduction of new technologies and the acceptance of found objects as musical instruments offer the composer nowadays an enormous range of creative possibilities. During this hands-on course consisting of 2 parts, technology, philosophy and composition are key elements that will help you navigate this creative pool of possibilities.
	Understanding the nature of sound, technology and instrumental performance will allow you to develop ideas and perspectives about your individual artistic practice.
	Sound Composition and Creative Technologies 1
	This first part of the course is devoted to developing a solid base in electronic studio techniques through creative compositional practice using the devices at the KC-100 electronic composition studio as the main laboratory for sound composition. During the course you will learn different studio techniques that will progressively help you to find an individual approach to every piece of equipment by determining their instrumental value in your compositional practice.

	Sound Composition and Creative Technologies 2
	The second part of the course focuses on developing notions and concepts explored in the first part through a series of creative instrumental systems. During this course you will learn a wide range of tools and techniques allowing you to understand the nature of sound creation, problematising instrumental performance and exercising collaboration. All projects realised in this part of the course are focused on encouraging the reflection of fundamental notions such as what constitutes a musical instrument and the role of the performer within the current contemporary music repertoire. A substantial part of this course is devoted to individual advice towards the creation and production of a final presentation. Individual meeting times will Programme objectives	be arranged with the instructor to develop final projects.  1.A.1, 1.A.9, 1.A.11, 1.A.14, 1.B.10, 1.C.7, 1.C.9
Course objectives	At the end of this course, you:
Course objectives	• have the knowledge and skills to operate the studio autonomously, while maintaining safe and purposeful conditions;
	• are capable of speaking the language of engineers on whom the performance of your future work might depend; are aware of new possibilities as well as past developments in music technology;
	• have gained sufficient practice on the nature and behaviour of sound as musical material; <ul> <li>have acquired the knowledge through practice in order to</li> </ul> develop a critical position on where your artistic practice and creative preferences are aesthetically situated within the musical use of these techniques;
	<ul> <li>have exercised collaboration and exchange of ideas with</li> </ul> colleagues and performers; <ul> <li>have been confronted with fundamental musical questions,</li> </ul> which even if you do not yet have the answers to, will help you to shape your artistic values.

Theory for Composers 1

Course title	Theory for Composers 1
Department responsible	Theory
OSIRIS course code	KC-TC-TVC1
Type of course	Compulsory course
Prerequisites	n/a
Course content	You will follow a personalised theory programme, in which the subjects taught, the balance between the modules and the level ultimately required and the results for each module depend on the entrance level, the total package and your envisaged artistic goal. The material is approached from the perspective of composing.
	The subject comprises the following components: Analysis: 1000 years of notated music Counterpoint: based on the fifteenth-century teaching of composition, built around composers such as Obrecht, Ockeghem and Josquin. An important element of this course is the practical approach; there is a lot of singing in the lessons, so that they incorporate the function of ear training. Harmony: divided into two elements: the analytical component is covered in the various classes on Analysis; the written component is taught in a separate class, which concentrates on the harmonic style of writing, in other words, with the focus on the principles of chord progresssion and voice leading. Ear training: intervals, chords, melodies. As separate objects (learning the names) but much more in (functional) relation to each other in the context of a composition. Referring to the canon of classical and contemporary art music, extracting exercises from them. Singing/sight-reading intervals and melodies or polyphonic structures. Rhythmical aspects are included as well.

	Year I: ear training, harmony and analyses
	Year II: ear training, counterpoint, harmony and analyses
	Year III: counterpoint
Programme objectives	1.A.1, 1.A.6, 1.B.1, 1.B.2, 1.B.6
Course objectives	At the end of this course, you:
	<ul> <li>can independently define musical building blocks (intervals,</li> </ul> harmony, rhythm) on the basis of a solid theoretical foundation; <ul> <li>can identify connections and structure in music from the</li> </ul> perspective of historical theory; <ul> <li>can interpret music from notation (harmony, counterpoint,</li> </ul> analysis);
	• have been trained in analysing while listening and singing from sheet music;
	<ul> <li>have acquired the capacity to improvise polyphonic</li> </ul> counterpoint as a performer singing in an ensemble with other students on the basis of sixteenth-century voice-leading rules.

Theory for Composers 3

Course title	Theory for Composers 3
Department responsible	Theory
OSIRIS course code	KC-TC-TVC3
Type of course	Compulsory course
Prerequisites	Theory for Composers 2

Common continut	Variable fall and a grant track the control of the Course content	You will follow a personalised theory programme, in which the subjects taught, the balance between the modules and the level ultimately required and the results for each module depend on the entrance level, the total package and your envisaged artistic goal. The material is approached from the perspective of composing.  The subject comprises the following components: Analysis: 1000 years of notated music Counterpoint: based on the fifteenth-century teaching of composition, built around composers such as Obrecht, Ockeghem and Josquin. An important element of this course is the practical approach; there is a lot of singing in the lessons, so that they incorporate the function of ear training. Harmony: divided into two elements: the analytical component is covered in the various classes on Analysis; the written component is taught in a separate class, which concentrates on the harmonic style of writing, in other words, with the focus on the principles of chord progresssion and voice leading. Ear training: intervals, chords, melodies. As separate objects (learning the names) but much more in (functional) relation to each other in the context of a composition. Referring to the canon of classical and contemporary art music, extracting exercises from them. Singing/sight-reading intervals and melodies or polyphonic structures. Rhythmical aspects are included as well.
	Year II: ear training, rounterpoint, harmony and analyses
	Year III: counterpoint
Programme objectives	1.A.1, 1.A.6, 1.B.1, 1.B.2, 1.B.6
Course objectives	At the end of this course, you:  can independently define musical building blocks (intervals, harmony, rhythm) on the basis of a solid theoretical foundation;  can identify connections and structure in music from the perspective of historical theory;  can interpret music from notation (harmony, counterpoint, analysis);  have been trained in analysing while listening and singing from sheet music;  have acquired the capacity to improvise polyphonic counterpoint as a performer singing in an ensemble with other students on the basis of sixteenth-century voice-leading rules.

Instrumentation 1-2

Course title	Instrumentation 1-2
Department responsible	Composition
OSIRIS course code	KC-TC-IN1-15; KC-TC-IN2-15
Type of course	Compulsory course
Prerequisites	For Instrumentation 2: Instrumentation 1
Course content	In contemporary music, the instrumentation of a work (with electronics or otherwise) is generally the point of departure for composing. Aspects covered include the historical aspects, the use of individual instruments, the cohesion with form and how the instrumentation shapes the concept. You will also study specific works from contemporary literature and carry out pragmatic assignments; i.e. arranging, conducting and leading ensembles. The lessons have a laboratory-like character and are linked to composition projects whenever possible.
Programme objectives	1.A.1, 1.A.8, 1.A.15, 1.B.1, 1.B.6, 1.B.7, 1.C.1, 1.C.5, 1.C.6, 1.C.7, 1.C.11
Course objectives	At the end of this course, you:
	• know all relevant technical facts about individual instruments, including 'extended techniques';
	• have studied the historical development of instrumentation and focussed on historical key works;
	• have done a variety of assignments and have expertise in arranging music for any ensemble; are able to invent new personal notations for new sounds;
	are able to use the skills and knowledge achieved from this Condition	course during your own creative composition process.
Credits	3 ECTS per academic year

Music Multimedia

Course title	Music Multimedia
Department responsible	Composition
OSIRIS course code	KC-TC-MM-14
Type of course	Compulsory course also available as elective
Prerequisites	Non applicable

Course content	The aim of the course is to introduce students to how technology can be used in creating new forms of music multimedia/intermedia and expanded performance practices, from traditional contexts such as opera or contemporary dance to new contexts such as sound installation and new media. The history of early paradigms in composing with non-musical elements is analysed, as well as current practices in sound art and contemporary forms of multimedia. The course also takes a practical form, in learning technologies that could be useful in creating expanded performance practices, such as analogue and digital sound manipulation, video and basic interactive software programming.
Programme objectives	1.A.9, 1.A.11, 1.A.12, 1.A.13, 1.B.1, 1.B.10, 1.C.9
Course objectives	At the end of this course, you:
	• have an overview of current developments in the field of music multimedia and expanded performance practices;
	• can analyse relationships between music and other disciplines and reflect on them;
	• are able to operate with selective live electronics.

Course title	Advanced Rhythm for Composers 1 and 2
Department responsible	Composition
OSIRIS course code	KC-CO-ARC1-22; KC-CO-ARC2-22
Type of course	Compulsory course for B3 and B4, also available as elective
Prerequisites	Only after completing Advanced Rhythm for Composers 1, students can follow Advanced Rhythm for Composers 2
Course content	This course offers an intercultural approach to universal rhythmic concepts. Certain Carnatic (South-Indian) tools provide clarity in the rhythmical phenomenon, reassuring the composers' personal view, while facilitating their creativity in all diversity of genres and aesthetics.
	Advanced Rhythm for Composers 1:
	- Notions of pulse, non-pulse, cyclicity. Tala
	- Subdivision, phrasing. Gati
	- Accents, groupings, polyrhythms. Jati
	- Phrase development in polyrhythms. Tree of gati bhedam, rhythmical sangatis
	- Irregular pulse and accents. Jati bhedam
	- Phrasing in modulating speeds (half, double, :3, :4, etc.). Anuloma, pratiloma
	- Comparative notation of rhythmical values and time signature.
	- Creative phrasing and displacement games. Yati phrases, sama mukthay Advanced Rhythm for Composers 2:
	- Creative phrasing in larger forms. Various mukthays, tirmanas, yati prastara, etc
	- Relationship rhythm-form-texture in longer formats. Mukthay combinations, poruttam
	- Metrical modulation, tempo changes.

	Deluguidas faraikilitu uhusiaal yafayayaan yatatian Nadai
	- Polypulse: feasibility, physical references, notation. Nadai bhedam
	- Alternating polypulse. Mixed jati nadai bhedam You are encouraged to apply the rhythmical concepts in your own work and you have the opportunity to be coached in this
B	aspect during the lessons.
Programme objectives	1.A.4, 1.B.1, 1.B.4, 1.C.1, 1.C.6, 1.C.7
Course objectives	At the end of this course, you:
	• enrich your rhythmical palette, gaining intuitive, expressive and creative potential;
	<ul> <li>acquire an organic feel for rhythmical proportions;</li> </ul>
	• explore issues of existing repertoire, including your own

MusicThought Method Adriaansz

Course title	MusicThought Method Adriaansz (aka The Rejection Class)
Department responsible	Composition
OSIRIS course code	KC-TC-AHMW2-11
Type of course	Compulsory course also available as elective
Prerequisites	Analysis Contemporary Music Basic
Course content	MusicThought Method Adriaansz (aka The Rejection Class) seeks to explore some of the fundamental ideas that lie at the basis of compositional choice and connects these to convergent ideas from the sciences, mathematics, musical theory, non Western cultures, visual arts and literature. The classes are built around four main pillars - Translation, Tuning, Form and Engagement - and take place in the form of a presentation, discussion and application of ideas on the basis of relevant compositions and articles from ca. 1970 until the present day. Music is listened to, scores are studied - with an emphasis on aural analysis, articles read. Broad topics include among others: Lingua Franca & Identity, Numbers and Speech as compositional basis, Tuning (basic introduction to all relevant terms), Vertical and Horizontal microtonality, Composing from Sound, Single-line writing, Process and rhythmic counterpoint, 'Form vs Content' and Political and Environmental Engagement. Purpose of the class is to familiarize the students with a large and broad repertoire, to heighten an awareness of the meaning and implications of ideas and help them along their path to determining their own goals.

New Arts and Music Theories

Course title	New Arts and Music Theories
Department responsible	Sonology
OSIRIS course code	KC-SO-NAMT-14
Type of course	Compulsory course
Prerequisites	Non applicable
Course content	This course is offered to all first-year students of ArtScience, Composition and Sonology. It is aimed to nurture an awareness of the possibilities of reciprocal expansion that exist between the domains of theory and artistic practice. The course tackles areas of enquiry that traverse both the substrate of artistic practice and theoretical research, articulated in thematic segments throughout the year. These segments comprise questions on the nature of: Language, Materiality, Media and Technology, Sensation and Affect, Ecology, Culture and the Collective. These thematic axes promote the familiarisation of the students with recent as well as historical theoretical tools, through an exposure to texts and artistic practices sourced in different traditions and knowledge disciplines. The course includes the participation of a substantial number of guest teachers coming from diverse areas and institutions across the Netherlands (and beyond) including Musicology, Art History, Media Theory, Performance Studies, Cultural Critique as well as art practitioners. The course aims to foster the receptiveness of students for open-ended and transdisciplinary explorations in which the role of histories and models of thought become inherent in the artistic process.

Programme objectives	1.A.8, 1.A.10, 1.B.7, 1.C.1, 1.C.4

Tutoring

Tutoring
Course title	Tutoring
Department responsible	Various
OSIRIS course code	KC-AL-PF
Type of course	Compulsory course
Prerequisites	Non applicable
Prerequisites Course content  Programme objectives Course objectives	First-year students entering the Royal Conservatoire are assigned a tutor. You remain with this tutor for the first three years of the bachelor's programme. The tutor's role is to help you to reflect on your study and to monitor your study progress. In order to become independent reflective practitioners students need selfregulation skills and habits. The tutor can offer you several tools to develop these skills, based on your needs and preferences. In the tutoring toolbox there are 4 categories for tools: foundation, intention, attention and reflection. In the course of the study year you and your tutor will decide together which tools are interesting and relevant to explore. You will show evidence of your development and study habits f.i. through practical assignments, reports, recordings, or in conversation. Students can also decide to keep the reflective practicing journal 'Musician's Log' developed by Susan Williams. The tutor will have consultations with students individually and in small groups. The tutor is also available to you on request. Consultations with the tutor are confidential. Study progress will be an important topic in private consultations. The tutor will consult with the head of department or coordinator about study related issues, without revealing any sensitive information. Students are encouraged to take responsibility and initiative and increasingly take ownership of their development.  1.A.2, 1.A.7, 1.A.10, 1.B.9, 1.C.1, 1.C.2, 1.C.3, 1.C.8, 1.C.16  At the end of this course, you:  are able to reflect on your study progress and communicate
	<ul> <li>about it with others;</li> <li>are able to reflect on your personal and artistic growth;</li> <li>have learned self-regulation tools and habits and are able to</li> </ul>

Prerequisites	Non applicable
Course content	In this programme you reflect on personal and general creative processes and practices and explore new learning environments in order to design and develop your own very diverse and unique workshop and teaching practices in the future. You discover innovations and technology in teaching creative music. Through literature, practical examples and discussions, you will gain new insights in creative thinking in education and in designing new sound related projects in education. Educational Skills 1 is the first part of a three-part course for sonology and composition students, which runs over two years and contains three semesters.  In this course you begin to understand the value of creative thinking in music education and education in general. You reflect on personal and general (creative) learning processes and explore new learning environments in practice. You learn about basics of teaching creative music, teaching processes, learning styles and about giving feedback. Through literature, practical examples and discussions, you will gain new insights in Programme objectives	creative thinking in education and teaching in general.  1.A.7, 1.A.10, 1.A.14, 1.A.15, 1.A.16, 1.A.19, 1.B.9, 1.B.12,  1.B.15, 1.C.7, 1.C.8, 1.C.11, 1.C.13, 1.C.14
Course objectives	At the end of this course, you:  understand the value of creative thinking in music education and education in general; begin to develop metacognitive awareness about creative and critical thinking within yourself; know and understand how creative processes work within music pedagogy; are able to give feedback on a fellow student's work, knowing when to employ both heuristic and directive feedback and are able to receive feedback and to process it constructively; are able to speak freely and give a presentation in front of an audience about a studied subject.

Educational Skills for Creative Artists 3

Course title	Educational Skills for Creative Artists 3
Department responsible	Education
OSIRIS course code	KC-ED-COEV3-20
Type of course	Compulsory course
Prerequisites	Educational Skills for Creative Artists 1 & 2
Course content	Educational Skills for Creative Artists 3 is the third part of a three-part programme for sonology and composition students, which runs over two years and contains three semesters. In this course the material offered in ES 1 and 2 is put into practice through developing an educational project with peers and for peers, in which you show to be able to lead a workshop and present it to and execute it with an audience.
Programme objectives	1.A.7, 1.A.10, 1.A.14, 1.A.15, 1.A.16, 1.A.19, 1.B.9, 1.B.12, 1.B.15, 1.C.7, 1.C.8, 1.C.11, 1.C.13, 1.C.14
Course objectives	At the end of this course, you:  • have the information and resources to successfully develop creative activity from scratch, individually or in cooperation with peers;  • develop understanding of different didactic work processes to develop your creative ideas with efficiency;  • have the basic knowledge to convert an idea into a project (shaping the idea; writing a proposal; working with an action plan; planning and design; construction and execution; completion and feedback);  • have the knowledge and methodological strategies to lead a project/activity/content (communication, the sequence of activities, class management, time management, adaptability and feedback together with peers) and engage with an educational situation;  • have created awareness and know, understand and are able to employ the (cycle of) processes of creative and critical thinking when developing and assessing a project.

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA BACHELOR COMPOSITION - MAIN SUBJECT

	9 - 10	7,5 - 8,5	5,5 - 7	0 - 5
Authenticity/Originality	Very authentic approach, highly individual musical language resulting in original works. Shows strong artistic personality.	Has found a genuine and sincere musical language but not very original.	Works clearly in a general defined and known musical idiom.	Shows no artistic personality. Can't get away from beaten tracks.
Craftsmanship/ Technique  (working with/ developing musical material)	Shows fantasy and knows exactly to define the right technique for specific compositional matter. Is capable of developing new techniques for new situations.	Is capable of applying a diversity of composition techniques with good result.	Use of enough composition techniques with average result.	No insight in good use of composition techniques or in individual development of them.
Instrumentation	Has found a highly personal way of instrumentation (electronics included) that fits the musical concept perfect and/or a very detailed knowledge about instrumentation in general.	Working from a diverse palette of instrumentation with good results.	Instrumentation level is functional but not innovative or personal.	Shows no fantasy or affinity with instrumental colour or instrumental techniques.

	9 - 10	7,5 - 8,5	5,5 - 7	0 - 5
Conceptual thinking	Found very solid balance between conceptual starting points and pragmatic issues. Is capable of building musical structures from pure conceptual thoughts.	Is aware of potency of conceptual thinking and can apply this with good results.	Conceptual abilities are average. Shows not much evidence of consistent and deeper abstract thinking.	Does not know how to apply conceptual strategies to composition or how to transform a concept into musical language/material.
Notation grade	Developed a specific notation that suits the musical idiom very well and/or a very refined mastery of instrumentation in general.	A good level in notation. Is able to notate/document any musical idea.	Notation is enough to make a musical idea clear to performers.	Shows no affinity with notating/documenting a musical idea in detail.
Composition research	Is inventive and consistent in defining and performing composition research as a preparatory phase to the composition process.	Research results in enough ideas or strategies to develop the composition process with good results.	Composition research is average resulting in acceptable but not high quality artistic planning.	Very shallow research resulting in meagre artistic planning.
Self-reflection/ Analytical capacities	Very capable of describing his/her artistic process. Able to take distance from own process. Can see own output in perspective of traditional canon. Is able to decide on the next artistic step as result of being self-reflective.	Is analytic but could be more inventive in drawing artistic conclusions based upon that analyses. Is able to direct himself into new directions with good results.	Self-reflective and analytic qualities are enough to be able to come up with ideas to explore into new directions with average result.	No abilities in self-reflection. Can't see own development in greater perspective.
