INTRODUCTION

We train talented dancers for a future career as creative and independent artists, with an open mind, craftsmanship, passion and ambition.

The dance curriculum consists of classical ballet, pointes technique (for girls) and jump technique (for boys), pas de deux, modern dance, classical variations, classical repertoire, the repertoire of the Dutch School repertoire of the Nederlands Dans Theater and improvisation. Other subjects that are taught are history of dance, career planning, creating a solo and preparing a study plan, as well as make-up, yoga, Pilates and body conditioning. The curriculum is based on the demands made by the international professional dance world and is designed to help students to acquire the technique, artistic ability and physical control required to perform the repertoire and the various dance styles to the standard required by the leading companies. Romantic ballets, neo-classical ballets as well as ballets by Hans van Manen, Jiří Kylián, Nils Christie, Johan Inger, Crystal Pite, Jiří Pokorný, Paul Lightfoot & Sol Leon, Lukas Timulak, Maurice Causey and others are all covered in the Dance programme's extensive curriculum, enabling the students to develop into all-round dancers capable of performing classical and modern repertoire. To further promote the professional development of its students, the Dance programme works closely with Nederlands Dans Theater.

The programme is offered at the Royal Conservatoire. The Dance department is part of the faculty of Music and Dance of the University of Arts The Hague. The Dance department is led by a director and an assistant director. They are the first point of contact for information and advice regarding the content of the curriculum, exam planning, the structure and progress of the students' studies, exemptions and customised study planning. The management of the Dance department administers the programme.

The purpose of this Curriculum Handbook is to provide you with all of the necessary information concerning the curricula and the courses of the Bachelor of Dance programme. After the sections with the Programme Objectives and a schematic overview of the curriculum, you will find descriptions of each course, including the learning goals (called 'objectives') and assessment criteria. We recommend that you also read the Royal Conservatoire's Study Guide, which includes the Education and Examination Regulations and the Bachelor of Dance Study Guide.

Director of Dance Department: Jan Linkens

Assistant Director of Dance Department: Catharina Boon

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES

The Royal Conservatoire has taken the seven dance competencies defined by the national Network Dance (2017)¹ as the starting point for the formulation of the programme objectives for its own Bachelor of Dance programme. Each of the seven broad competencies encompasses a cluster of specific capabilities which together make up our programme objectives. For ease of reference, they are numbered 1. (1), 1. (2), 2. (1), 2 (2), etc.

In the course descriptions in this handbook, the ‘programme objectives’ field shows the programme objectives to which that specific course relates. In other words, the course contributes to obtaining the skills and knowledge described in those programme objectives. Various courses can contribute to achieving a particular objective.

CREATING A SOLO

Course title:	Creating a Solo
Osiris course code:	KC-DA-SO
Course content:	In this course, your personal creativity and artistic ability are stimulated and developed by creating your own solo. You also improve your reflective and research skills. You learn to describe the concept of your solo, to pitch the concept and to work independently on the performance of the solo.

	A self-created solo is an important element in the audition process, reflecting the importance of creativity for the professional dancer. There are several stages in the development of the solo: 1. Writing a concept: You introduce the concept at an interview with the external teachers/coaches, using a specific format to describe the concept, the source of your inspiration and the planned creative process in clear and articulate terms. 2. Work process in the studio: The external teachers/coaches work with you in the studio. Hours are set aside in the timetable for self-study. 3. Presentation of the solo: The performance is preceded by an oral presentation (a pitch) in which you explain the underlying concept of the solo in English. The length of the solo is not shorter than two minutes and not longer than three minutes. Students in BIV are expected to produce a higher level concept and solo, showing a deeper understanding of the working process in the studio.
Objectives:	At the end of this course, you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ can use the working process in the studio as well as your research and reflective capabilities to create an original concept, resulting in an individual interpretation and signature; ▪ know how to translate ideas in movement using physical effort, individuality and inventiveness; ▪ can write your concept in a clear format; ▪ can present your concept verbally; ▪ know how to communicate and collaborate with others; ▪ know how to work in the studio and be self-disciplined; ▪ can create and execute a solo, which you can use for professional auditions.
