

How do I finance my studies at the Royal Conservatoire?*

*for new bachelor's and master's students only

It is crucial that you have a solid budget throughout the duration of your studies. In addition to the tuition fees, you have to cover the cost of living, which is around €1,000 a month.

Please don't take any risks and plan for the long term!

Start ↓

Are you an EU/EEA national?

yes

Are you applying for a bachelor's programme?

no

Are you applying for a master's programme?

yes

With your application, you have automatically applied for an Excellence Scholarship or a NL Scholarship. Please note there are only a few scholarships available.

no

The Netherlands can't offer you a bachelor's scholarship and the Royal Conservatoire doesn't provide a safety net. Please inform in your home country for financial support options, such as a student loan from the government.

yes

With your first year application, you have automatically applied for an Excellence Scholarship. See below for options for Dutch student finance.

no

yes

If you are enrolled in a Dutch university for a regular bachelor's or master's programme, you might be eligible for Dutch student finance, if you have a job in the Netherlands.

Do you have a job in the Netherlands?

yes

You can apply to DUO for student finance and possibly for a supplementary grant. Check the requirements at duo.nl

no

You can only apply to DUO for a tuition fees loan.

Click here for more information on how to find a job