Foreword

The academic year 2022-2023 will be the first full year, in which we all will learn, teach and work in our new home Amare. And what a new home it is! Looking back, it almost feels like a miraculous moment when we moved from one building to the other. Even if the moving process was not without (un)expected challenges, classes started in the morning of Monday 17 January 2022. I will never forget walking through the building on that day and seeing virtually all teaching rooms and studios full of students and teachers working together, teaching and practising, like nothing special had happened. This was a testimony to the hard work of many colleagues under the leadership of vice-principal Karin van der Lee, organising the moving process so well despite all problems caused by the corona pandemic. Karin has now left her position as vice-principal and will be working for us as an adviser, but a huge word of thanks should be expressed to her, her team and many others for the tireless work to make our wonderful new building a reality.

This Study Guide looks different from previous editions. This has a very important reason: the gradual but steady implementation of the online KC Portal. Mark Borneman and his Marketing & Communication team have done a fantastic job to set up this new online resource, where a huge amount of information can be searched and found. There is no doubt that the KC Portal will be a vital tool for our internal communication. I invite you to browse the portal and see what is already there, and call upon colleagues to contribute to the further development of its content. The consequence is also that the Study Guide can be much more concise with the most essential information only, with ample references to information on the KC Portal, where it can be updated regularly.

The move to Amare and the corona pandemic has had no negative impact on our efforts to constantly review and improve our curriculum. The Faculty Plan 2022-2024 has just been published and it describes both the results of the previous Faculty Plan 2019-2021 and the plans for the coming years. It shows that most of the objectives in the areas of education, research, internationalisation and preparation for professional practice as described in the previous plan have been reached successfully, with the support of the budgets reserved under the government Quality Agreements. In the new plan we will continue with the plans in these four areas under the aegis of the Quality Agreements, but two other directions are prominently added. Developing plans to make the most out of our cohabitation with Nederlands Dans Theater, Residentie Orkest and Stichting Amare in our new building is one. The other development that has kept us busy recently is the Action Plan on Social Safety. All these developments are clearly described in the Faculty Plan 2022-2024. I invite all of you to take note of this document and do not hesitate to send observations, questions, or comments if you have them.

The coming year is going to be crucial for the Royal Conservatoire. We will continue to make all our students, teachers and colleagues feel at home in Amare and, as mentioned above, start working concretely on the many unique opportunities that Amare brings to the conservatoire through its location in the city centre, its state-of-the-art performance and teaching facilities, and the cohabitation with professional partners. Another important development will be the many changes in the management of both the Royal Conservatoire and the University of the Arts The Hague. New heads will be appointed for the departments of jazz, voice and composition. The university will see a new governance structure with a one-person College van Bestuur, who will lead the university together with the two faculty directors. A new director for our sister faculty KABK, Ranti Tjan, has already been appointed. Soon there will be an announcement about the appointment for the College van Bestuur. This means that Henk van der Meulen will step back from the College van Bestuur and also retire as director of the conservatoire during the coming academic year. Henk has led both the conservatoire and the university successfully through many developments and (sometimes challenging) situations during the past years. The fact that Henk has been one of the few leaders in the context of Dutch higher art education at the level of College van Bestuur with an artistic background and therefore a deep knowledge, experience and love of music and arts, makes his profile unique. It will be a challenge to find a worthy replacement for his posts as conservatoire director and member of the College van Bestuur.

So never a dull moment at the Royal Conservatoire. As in all previous years, I invite you all to play an active part in all these developments and let me take this opportunity to already thank you for your invaluable contributions.

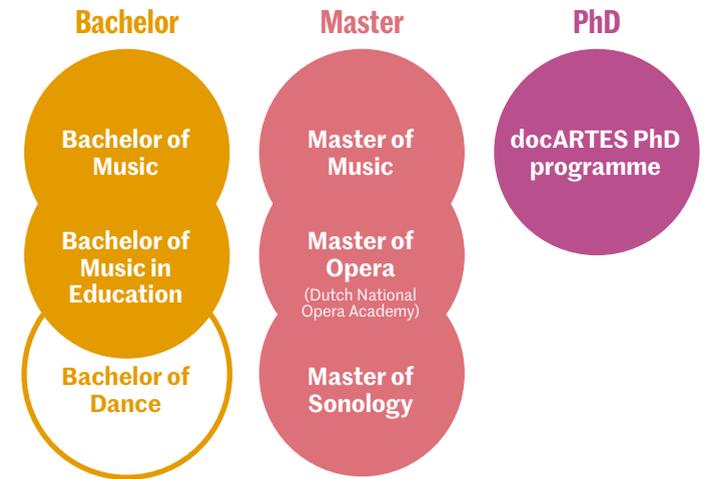

Martin Prchal, vice-principal Education

A. Education at the Royal Conservatoire

A.1 Degree programmes

The Royal Conservatoire offers Bachelor's, Master's and PhD programmes. The programmes are all listed in the Central Register of Higher Education Programmes (CROHO).

The Bachelor's programmes include the Bachelor of Music, the Bachelor of Music in Education and the Bachelor of Dance. The Bachelor of Music embraces a variety of disciplines. More information can be found in chapter C.

At Master's level, the Royal Conservatoire offers three programmes: the Master of Music, the Master of Opera (Dutch National Opera Academy) and the Master of Sonology. The Master of Music and Master of Sonology encompass various disciplines and specialisations. Further details can be found in chapter D.

Information on the docARTES PhD programme can be found in chapter E.

A.2 Non-degree programmes

The Royal Conservatoire offers programmes for young musicians and dancers. You can find more information about the School for Young Talent and the different disciplines at svjt.nl.

The following sub-sections contain information about a number of other non-degree programmes we offer.

A.2.1 Preparatory Year

Students who cannot be admitted to the Bachelor's or Master's programme because they do not meet the admission criteria (or for any other reason) can follow a Preparatory Year. During this course, you can follow a study programme generally consisting of a number of main subject lessons and theory lessons to acquire the necessary knowledge and skills. For more information about the preparatory course, go to koncon.nl/preparatorycourse.

A.2.2 Contract education

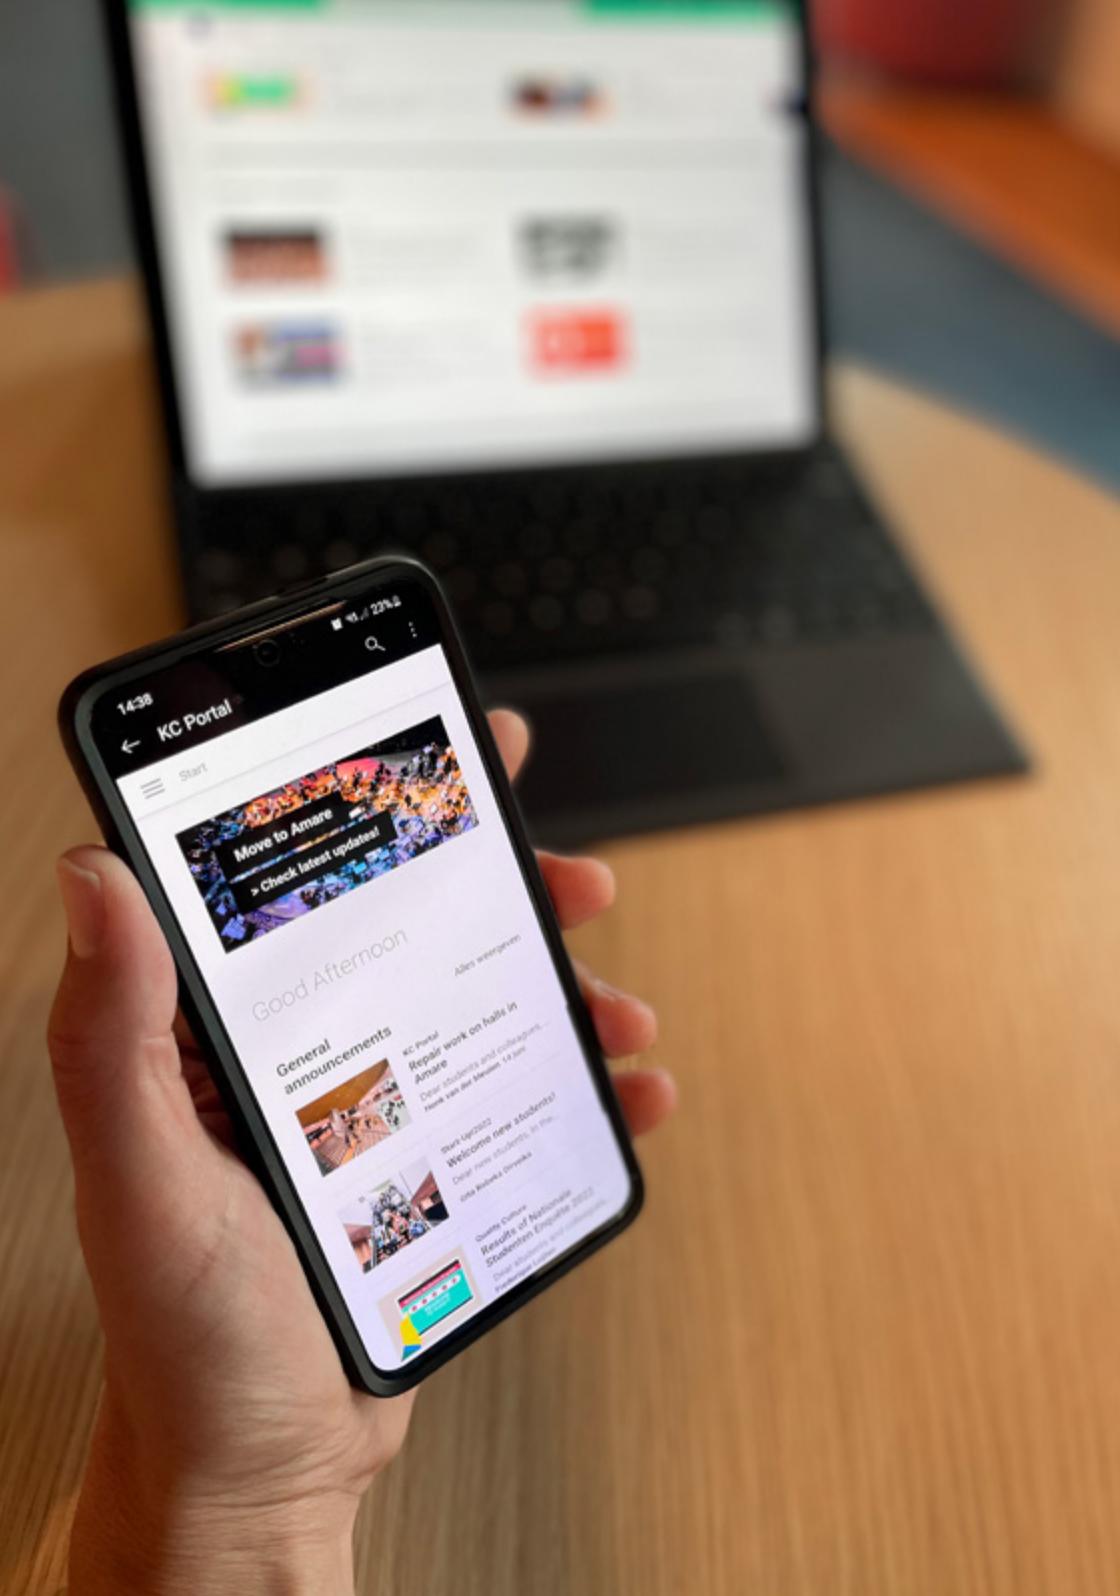

The Royal Conservatoire offers contract education in the form of courses with incidental lessons at the level of a professional music course but with no certificate or diploma being awarded at the end of the course. These lessons can be individual lessons, group lessons or theory classes. Contract education is intended for alumni and other musicians, but students enrolled at the Royal Conservatoire who wish to take courses that are not part of their regular curriculum can also sign up. For more information including rates for internal and external students and an overview of the departments that offer contract education, see koncon.nl/contracteducation.

A.2.3 Artist Certificate Dance

If you have a Bachelor of Dance degree from the Royal Conservatoire or an equivalent education in dance and a real desire to further develop your professional and artistic skills you can enrol for our one-year dance programme leading to the award of 'Artist Certificate Dance'. You will be part of the Royal Conservatoire Dance Ensemble to gain experience in performing classical and modern repertoire and work with different choreographers.

A.2.4 Artist Certificate Music

Students with a Master's degree can follow a one-year course to deepen their artistic and professional skills. Course participants can focus on specific repertoire or expand their knowledge in a particular subject. The programme includes weekly individual instrumental, vocal or composition lessons of 75 minutes. Depending on your choice, you can participate in ensembles, combos or orchestral projects. In addition, you have access to the Royal Conservatoire's External Bookings Office, which organises regular opportunities for performances. The programme leads to an Artist Certificate, which is awarded to candidates who successfully pass a final public presentation, which is assessed by a committee of examiners. Further information about the Artist Certificate can be found at koncon.nl/artistcertificate-music.

B.3 Instruments

We would like to point out two possibilities that might be interesting for you if you are looking to buy or loan an instrument.

Instrument fund

- Under certain circumstances, students at the Royal Conservatoire may qualify for an interest-free loan to buy an instrument. The maximum amount of the loan is € 6,000,- and it must be repaid within 60 months.
- For more information, go to koncon.nl/instrumentfund. For the conditions and procedures, go to portal.koncon.nl.

Loan of instruments

- Students can borrow instruments from the Royal Conservatoire for short periods for school projects or curriculum-related activities. If you wish to borrow an instrument, you should contact the relevant department's project manager.
- In exceptional cases, an instrument can be hired from the Royal Conservatoire for a longer period. The maximum hire period is one year of study and the purpose of the arrangement is to give you time to acquire your own instrument (with the help of an external fund or otherwise). Applications must be submitted, together with a statement of the reason for the request, to your own department's coordinator.

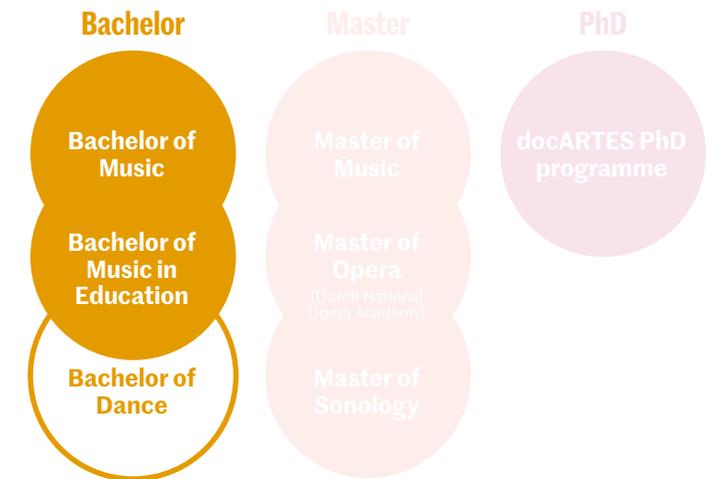

FOCUS

C. Bachelor's programmes

The Bachelor's programmes include the Bachelor of Music, the Bachelor of Music in Education, and the Bachelor of Dance. The Bachelor of Music includes a variety of disciplines. Below you will find a short introduction to the Bachelor of Music in Education and the Bachelor of Dance, with references to sources where you can find more information, and more detailed information about the Bachelor of Music.

C.1 Bachelor of Music in Education

The Bachelor of Music in Education (Docent Muziek) is a four-year study programme that leads to a first-grade qualification. With this qualification, students can give lessons at every level of education in the Netherlands (and the EU). The programme is taught mainly in Dutch.

The role of the musician as teacher is at the core of the programme. The emphasis is on producing graduates who combine the ability to play music to a high standard with the skills required to transfer their knowledge to others. The staff of the Bachelor of Music in Education feels it is important that, as teachers, the alumni see themselves first and foremost as musicians. Therefore, the staff devotes intensive efforts to developing the students' artistry and craftsmanship. Students receive four years of lessons on their main instrument and gain proficiency in arranging for ensembles, composing for special occasions, conducting a school choir and coaching a band. Internships form a common thread throughout the curriculum.

The Music in Education department is known for the many projects jointly developed and performed by the entire student group. Annual projects include a cultural trip, a choir week and a musical-theatre production.

More information is available in the Curriculum Handbook Bachelor of Music in Education, which can be found at portal.koncon.nl and koncon.nl.

C.2 Bachelor of Dance

The Bachelor of Dance programme at the Royal Conservatoire trains talented dancers as creative and independent artists who have mastered the techniques of academic ballet and modern dance and combine an open mind with musicality, craftsmanship, passion and ambition. The worldwide dance profession is constantly evolving and calls for self-assured dancers with a broad training, who practise their craft with dedication and discipline.

Thanks to the programme's close association with celebrated figures such as Jiří Kylián, Nils Christie, Hans van Manen and others, the curriculum combines mastery of the technique of academic ballet with repertoire of the 'Dutch School', which is famous for its unique idiom in terms of movement and musicality, and of Nederlands Dans Theater (NDT). This combination enhances the programme's international appeal.

The Dance programme is integrated in the curriculum of the School for Young Talent, with most students starting in the penultimate year of primary school and, after completing their secondary education (with a HAVO or VWO diploma), continuing for two years to obtain a Bachelor's degree at higher professional education (HBO) level. The Dance programme has exchange programmes with institutions in other countries for both teachers and students.

Information about the Dance programme is available in the Dance Study Guide and Curriculum Handbook, which can be found at portal.koncon.nl and koncon.nl/dance.

C.3 Bachelor of Music

C.3.1 Introduction

The Bachelor of Music is a four-year programme culminating in a Bachelor's qualification as a musician. The Bachelor's programme offers you plenty of opportunity to fully develop your personal strengths on the basis of qualities such as craftsmanship, artistic vision and knowledge of the repertoire. From the second year, the curriculum is expanded with a range of elective courses and minors to allow you to develop additional skills and explore new areas.

Every department publishes a Curriculum Handbook with programme objectives, curriculum overviews, course descriptions, information on assessment and assessment criteria. The Curriculum Handbooks can be found on the Programmes pages on the website and at portal.koncon.nl.

This chapter explains the domains of the Bachelor of Music curriculum and highlights some specific aspects of the curriculum. It also provides information about tutoring and exemptions.

C.3.2 The structure of the Bachelor of Music curriculum

The Bachelor of Music curriculum is divided into two phases: the propaedeutic (year I) and the post-propaedeutic (years II, III, IV) phase. The curriculum encourages you to develop your artistic and creative qualities to the highest possible standard, by offering opportunities to fully develop your craftsmanship, musicianship, and artistic vision. The curriculum includes academic skills and a range of electives and minors, as well as courses in career skills designed to ease the transition from study to a successful mixed professional practice. The curriculum courses are divided into the following five domains:

1. Artistic Development
2. Musicianship Skills
3. Academic Skills
4. Professional Preparation
5. Electives and Minors

C.3.3 Artistic Development

Performing departments

The Royal Conservatoire's Performing departments are Classical Music, Jazz, Early Music and Vocal Studies. The Artistic Development domain encompasses all lessons and courses directly related to playing music and composing: the main subject lessons, the various ensemble lessons, group lessons, master classes, student recitals, etc. Students in the Jazz department also work with ASPIRE, a team of external, international teachers from the professional field.

Creative departments

The Royal Conservatoire's Creative departments are Composition, Sonology, Art of Sound and ArtScience. For Composition students, the Artistic Development domain includes, in addition to the main subject lessons, the annual Spring Festival. Sonology students work on a personal project under the guidance of a mentor and follow courses in a sixth domain: Technological Skills and Knowledge.

Workshop weeks

Every year the ArtScience, Composition and Sonology departments organise a number of workshop weeks with guest teachers. The workshops cover a range of subjects that supplement the curricula and promote the exchange of knowledge between the students in these departments. For more information, check the Curriculum Handbook.

C.3.4 Musicianship Skills

The teaching of music theory focuses on the development of practical and cognitive skills, also known as 'musicianship skills'. These skills are practice based (e.g. improvisation plays an important role) and are important for the professional musician and music teacher. Check the relevant curriculum overview (at koncon.nl or in the Curriculum Handbook) to see which music theory courses are part of your study programme. Singing in the First Year Choir is compulsory for all first-year students in the Performing departments. Students from most of those departments are required to follow a music theory elective in the third year.

C.3.5 Academic Skills

This domain encompasses courses in basic research skills, such as the ability to read articles critically and knowing how to write a paper. The courses include Historical Development and Critical Music Studies. The lessons prepare you for writing Programme Notes for your own final presentation in the fourth year.

C.3.6 Professional Preparation

During the Bachelor's programme we prepare you for professional practice with practical courses such as Training Orchestral Parts and courses in didactics such as Educational Skills. But you will also follow courses specifically designed to prepare you for your future career. These Career Skills courses include Start-Up!, Entrepreneurial Bootcamp, Meet the Professionals, and Preparation for Professional Practice. Recurring topics are communication, self-management, artistic identity, and becoming aware of career possibilities.

C.3.7 Electives and Minors

There is a fundamental change in the curriculum in the second year, when the core curriculum is supplemented by an elective component. This means you are able to determine part of the content of your own study programme from the second year onwards.

This elective component consists of a menu of electives and minors. In consultation with your main subject teacher and your tutor, you can choose a number of electives or a minor. The chosen course(s) must represent at least the total number of credits required, as specified in the relevant curriculum overview. You also have the option of following elective and minor courses at Codarts in Rotterdam and at Leiden University. Further information about electives and minors, including rules and regulations, and details of how to register for these courses can be found in the Bachelor Electives and Minors Handbook at portal.koncon.nl. For more information about minors at Leiden University, see section G.1 in this study guide.

Electives

Electives at the Royal Conservatoire are stand-alone courses with a study load ranging from 1 ECTS to 8 ECTS. There is no entrance exam for these courses. Electives at Leiden University are worth 5 ECTS. You can choose electives year by year.

Minors

A minor at the Royal Conservatoire is a 'mini-study programme' comprising multiple courses and with an entrance exam. A minor usually takes three years and the total course load is normally 18 ECTS (6 ECTS per year). A Codarts minor is a one-year course. There is no entrance exam, but there is only limited capacity. Students who successfully complete a full minor receive a certificate. Students who are completing a minor in the fourth year are automatically granted an exemption from the External Activities - Career Development Office (CDO) course (see below), a compulsory component of the fourth-year curriculum.

The following minors will be offered in the 2022/23 academic year:

- Minor ArtScience
- Minor Art of Sound
- Minor Chamber Music
- Minor Choral Conducting
- Minor Education
- Minor Education for Creative Artists
- Minor Orchestral Conducting
- Minor Wind Band Conducting
- Minor Composition
- Minor Music in Context (with ACPA at Leiden University)
- Minor Music Theory
- Minor Classical Music
- Minor Early Music
- Minor Early Music - Related Instrument
- Minor Jazz
- Minor Jazz - Second Instrument
- Minor Sonology
- Minor Voice
- Minor Voice Classical Music
- Minor Voice Early Music

Instrumental/vocal minors:

Most instrumental/vocal minors consist of both an instrumental/vocal and a theoretical component. The contact time in the minor is not deducted from the one-to-one lessons in the main subject. Students who are considering choosing an instrumental or vocal minor are advised to consult the teacher of their main subject and the head of the relevant department in good time.

Minor Education:

Students who wish to improve their teaching skills can follow the newly revised Minor Education from the second semester in Bachelor III. The Minor Education complements the Educational Skills courses in the core curriculum. Students who successfully complete the minor are awarded a certificate. The objective of the Minor Education is to provide students with the skills needed to teach independently in a private practice or in a music school, a cultural institution or elsewhere. You will gain expertise in a specific area by doing a project in the profile of your choice. You will also explore new challenges within the range of music education and participation. Further information about all the minors can be found at portal.koncon.nl.

The Career Development Office (CDO) and your external activities

In the course External Activities – Career Development Office you earn credits for professional activities outside the Conservatoire. You can organise the activities yourself, but also with the help of the Career Development Office (CDO), a key contact point within the Conservatoire for students who wish to take part in concerts and other activities outside the school. The CDO's External Bookings Office (Podiumbureau) can help to arrange activities such as participating in master classes or ensemble projects, organising concerts or festivals and making a recording, but also in finding work and internships and arranging venues for concerts outside the Conservatoire. The CDO has also developed a vast online resource on the KC portal with extensive information on how to start your own professional practice (how to apply to the Chamber of Commerce, information on taxes, etc.), see portal.koncon.nl.

You can choose External Activities – Career Development Office as an elective in the second and third years of the Bachelor's programme (for a minimum of 2 and a maximum of 4 ECTS per year - see the course description in the Bachelor Electives and Minors Handbook and Curriculum Handbook at portal.koncon.nl). In the fourth year, the course is a compulsory component of the curriculum (for a minimum of 6 ECTS) for students who are not completing a minor. For more information about External Activities – Career Development Office, see the course description in the Curriculum Handbook and at portal.koncon.nl.

C.3.8 Study progress and reflection

Various methods are used during the course to help you become more independent and to provide counselling when you face important choices or need to reflect.

Personal contact between student and teacher

The individual lessons are an important feature of the transfer of knowledge from teacher to student in music education. Students often consciously choose a particular teacher for their main subject. The one-on-one contact also provides you with a guarantee of personal supervision. Students who wish to change teachers during their studies should contact the head of their department.

Tutors

Students are assigned a tutor at the start of the first year of the course and will continue to receive tutoring for the first three years of the Bachelor's programme (for four years in Art of Sound) as part of the Tutoring course in the curriculum. The tutor's role is to help you to reflect on your studies and to monitor your progress. They do this in two ways:

- By assigning projects or activities from the 'tutoring toolbox' (see below).
- By holding discussions with students, individually or in small groups. During these meetings, the tutor can help to resolve any problems you and other students are encountering in your studies by clarifying the factors you need to consider and the choices and dilemmas you face, and by encouraging you to take appropriate action yourself. You can approach your tutor at your own initiative, but during the year the tutors personally arrange meetings with their students to discuss the progress they are making with their studies on the basis of the activities they have chosen from the tutoring toolbox and the Study Progress Overview. Group meetings are organised at the beginning of the academic year (during Start-Up!) to give the tutors and students an opportunity to get to know each other. Consultations with the tutor are confidential.

The tutoring toolbox is an instrument we use to encourage you to reflect on the progress you are making with your studies. It contains information and assignments designed to improve your study skills, divided into four categories:

1. Foundation (e.g., motivation, health & well-being)
2. Intention (e.g., identifying goals and planning)
3. Attention (e.g., focus while studying)
4. Reflection (e.g., gathering feedback, reflection)

Every year, in consultation with your tutor, you select at least one activity or theme in each category to work on for that year. In this way, you gradually acquire more insight into your habits and your strengths and weaknesses. Self-reflection is not only helpful during the Bachelor's programme, but is also useful preparation for a Master's programme at the Conservatoire, since the capacity for self-reflection is an important criterion for the Master Project / Study Plan that you have to write when applying for a Master's study.

See also the description of the Tutoring course in the Curriculum Handbook at portal.koncon.nl.

C.3.9 Exemptions

Students who have already followed at least part of a Bachelor's programme elsewhere can request an exemption for one or more courses in the core curriculum. In the case of theory courses, you will first be tested on your knowledge of music theory to determine whether an exemption can be granted. Exemptions requests are approved or rejected by the Exam Committee.

You can request an exemption via OSIRIS Student. Please note: there are strict deadlines for submitting requests. For more information, see chapter G of the Education and Examination Regulations in this Study Guide. You can read the complete procedure for requesting exemptions at portal.koncon.nl.

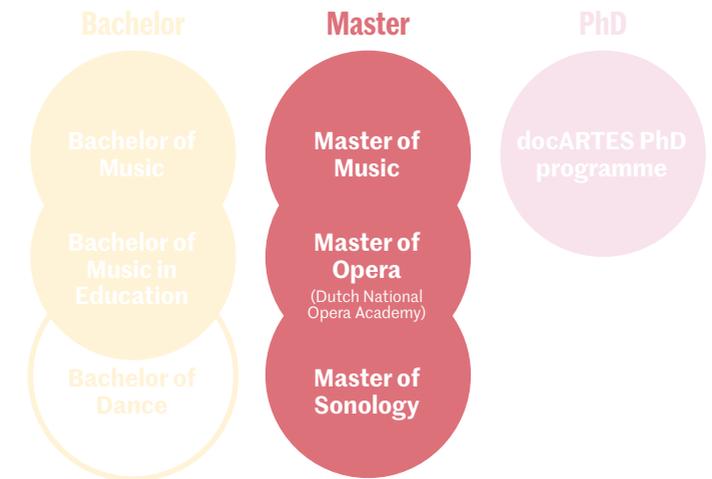

C.3.10 The Education and Examination Regulations of the Royal Conservatoire

The rules governing exams are laid down in the Education and Examination Regulations of the Royal Conservatoire. The regulations are revised every year in consultation with the Study Programme Committee, the Exam Committee, the directorate and the departments.

The full text of the Education and Examination Regulations of the Royal Conservatoire can be found in chapter I of this study guide, on the website at koncon.nl/oeer and at portal.koncon.nl.

D. Master's programmes

The Royal Conservatoire's ambition is to train students who can play a prominent role in their chosen profession, nationally and internationally. In the Master's programmes, you further develop a personal musical vision and fulfil your aspiration of becoming an enterprising musician with artistic awareness and the ability to reflect on and communicate about your work. In addition to classes dedicated to your artistic development, the programmes offer a range of courses relating to research and professional integration. You also carry out your own project and have opportunities to participate in productions inside and outside the Royal Conservatoire.

The Royal Conservatoire offers three Master's programmes: the Master of Music, the Master of Opera (Dutch National Opera Academy) and the Master of Sonology. Here we present a brief introduction to the Master of Opera and the Master of Sonology, with references to sources where you can find more information, and more detailed information about the Master of Music.

D.1 Master of Opera – Dutch National Opera Academy

The Dutch National Opera Academy (DNOA) is a collaboration between the Conservatorium van Amsterdam and the Royal Conservatoire in The Hague. The DNOA is an intensive two-year Master's programme with a wide-ranging curriculum that encompasses every aspect of the training of an aspiring opera artist. Central to the learning trajectory of a DNOA student is the integration of singing, acting and physicality, with a view to producing graduates who are both technically assured and artistically credible. Combining the functions of both an educational institution and a production company, fully staged productions are an indispensable feature of the DNOA's activities. Students are also required to undertake a research project that has particular relevance for their practice as an opera singer.

For more information about the DNOA, see the Curriculum Handbook and opera-academy.nl.

D.2 Master of Sonology

Alongside their artistic activities, students in the Master of Sonology programme carry out an independent research project and write a thesis under the guidance of a mentor from the Institute of Sonology. The Master of Sonology is a two-year programme with two disciplines: 'Sonology' and 'Audio Communication & Sonology'.

For more information about the Master of Sonology, see the Curriculum Handbook and sonology.org.

The educational philosophy of the Master of Music at the Royal Conservatoire is to enable you to develop your individual artistic vision, personal growth, inquisitive attitude, entrepreneurship and independence, while broadening your cultural horizon, as well as developing your instrumental and technical skills to the highest possible standard. We want our alumni to be excellent performers and composers, but also professionals who can reflect on their role in society, and know how to collaborate and navigate the complex realities of today's and tomorrow's music profession.

D.3.1 Master Project

Within the Master of Music programme, the Master Project represents a unique opportunity to design an activity with your own future in mind. The Master Project is an overarching assignment that combines all three domains of our Master's curriculum: artistic development, research and professional integration. As part of the curriculum, you will receive individual and group lessons in your main subject to aid you in your artistic development, you will conduct research on a topic of your own choice, and you will design and initiate your own professional integration activity. These elements and activities all come together in the Master Project.

Designing your own Master Project provides the impetus to contemplate your future career and experiment with establishing your own professional practice while you are still studying. In creating your Master Project, you need to consider whether it will help you find your place in the professional practice when you have finished your studies. We encourage collaboration, and it is therefore possible to do a Master Project together with other students.

D.3.2 Master Project Network and courses

To help you in successfully developing your Master Project, you will receive guidance and support from your Master Project Network: main subject teacher, research supervisor, professional integration coach and master circle leader. In addition, the courses listed below provide further useful guidance:

Introduction to Research in the Arts

A series of lectures on the subject of conducting (artistic) research. The course includes a workshop on the use of the online Research Catalogue.

Introduction to Project Management

A number of intensive sessions teaching you the skills and principles of project management. By the end of the course, you will have produced a project plan for your Professional Integration Activity, which you will carry out during the rest of your Master's programme.

Master Circle

The master circle is a peer-learning group, organised by focus area and led by a master circle leader. During monthly meetings, students in the first and second years of the programme discuss their progress with the Master Project, the insights they have gained and the problems they have encountered.

Individual Research Trajectory

You will formulate a research question and conduct research with the support of your personal research supervisor.

Professional Integration Trajectory

You will design and implement your own Professional Integration Activity (PIA). This is an activity that brings you a step further towards achieving your goals for your (future) professional practice. Your PIA can be any activity, but you must initiate it yourself and it has to take place outside the school. Coaching is provided by a professional integration coach, individually and in small groups.

Master Electives

The Master electives provide you with insight into a specific musical subject or practical skill. The focus of the courses is on researching relevant literature and other source materials and the use of different research methodologies. Information about the electives in the Master's programmes can be found in the Master Electives Handbook.

The structure described in this section applies to most students in the Master of Music. However, it may differ depending on your discipline. More information can be found in the course descriptions in your Curriculum Handbook, as well as in the Master of Music Handbook, at portal.koncon.nl.

You can find the contact details of the members of the master research and professional integration teams at portal.koncon.nl.

D.3.3 CDO credits

Besides developing your own Professional Integration Activity, we ask you to engage with the field of professional work by undertaking various external activities. Master's students can earn additional credits for professional activities outside the Royal Conservatoire, such as rehearsing with a professional orchestra or ensemble, working for a festival or multimedia production, or putting on their own projects or productions. Naturally, the number of hours devoted to practical work each week will vary for each student. These activities must be separate from your Professional Integration Activity. The Career Development Office (CDO) can help you to find activities outside the Royal Conservatoire and keeps records of the credits you earn.

You can find more information about the Career Development Office at portal.koncon.nl.

D.3.4 The Research Catalogue and Research Prize

During the Master's programme you will use the Royal Conservatoire's online research portal to find documentation and for presentations relating to your research. The portal uses the Research Catalogue, an international database of artistic research (see: researchcatalogue.net), where you will find materials in various media, including audio files, images, videos, texts, slideshows and PDFs, which can be combined to produce an exhibit. Every year the best research projects of the Royal Conservatoire are published in the Research Catalogue.

An annual prize of € 500 is awarded to the student who has presented the best research project. The winning projects are also used as models of good practice for future students.

D.3.5 Exemptions

Students who have already followed at least part of a Master's programme elsewhere can request an exemption for one or more courses in the core curriculum. Exemptions requests are approved or rejected by the Exam Committee.

You can request an exemption via OSIRIS Student. Please note: there are strict deadlines for submitting requests. For more information, see chapter G of the Education and Examination Regulations in this Study Guide. You can read the complete procedure for requesting exemptions at portal.koncon.nl.

D.3.6 The Education and Examination Regulations of the Royal Conservatoire

The rules governing exams are laid down in the Education and Examination Regulations of the Royal Conservatoire. The regulations are revised every year in consultation with the Study Programme Committee, the Exam Committee, the directorate and the departments.

The full text of the Education and Examination Regulations of the Royal Conservatoire can be found in chapter I of this study guide, on the website at koncon.nl/oer and at portal.koncon.nl.

E. Research and PhD

E.1 Research at the Royal Conservatoire: mission and vision

Conducting research is essential for gaining a better understanding of your artistic practice and thereby constantly improving. Research is therefore one of the pillars of the Royal Conservatoire's curriculum, in addition to education and production. We feel it is important that artistic practice is central to this research and therefore refer to it as artistic research. This form of research yields knowledge that cannot be captured in text alone, but can also be expressed in a composition or a performance.

Our vision of research is encapsulated in four points:

1. Artistic identity

Conducting research arises from curiosity and is therefore an important tool for creating awareness of your personal motivation, intuition and implicit knowledge. By deepening your knowledge and acquiring expertise, you give direction to the process of creating a strong artistic identity.

2. Practical development

Conducting research creates a platform that enables you to critically review and evaluate existing practices. Where research is conducted, there is room for experimenting and taking risks.

3. Cooperation

Research promotes collaboration between students and their teachers and between students themselves. Research encourages a dialogue between departments, making us aware of our relationship to others. This dialogue can lead to joint projects and a shared research agenda.

4. Development of the Conservatoire

Research can keep us in touch with the history of the Royal Conservatoire as an institute and the knowledge it embodies. Students can build on that history to make connections with the issues facing society today in their research. The research carried out at the Royal Conservatoire enables it to make its mark in a changing world.

E.2 Research at the Royal Conservatoire: embodiment in the education

We are convinced that conducting research is very important, both for students and for staff members. Accordingly, the Bachelor's and Master's curricula both contain a substantial research component, while teachers are also encouraged to engage in research projects.

Students in the Bachelor's programme learn the basic research skills that they will need later in their career as a musician. These skills include the ability to reflect critically on their own work and the work of others, to review articles, to write short papers and to present their research to an audience. Further information about research in the Bachelor's programme can be found in chapter C.

Research occupies a prominent position in the Master's programme. For two years students carry out research in their own area of interest for their Master Project. Students present the results of their research during the annual Research Symposium. Further information about research in the Master's programme can be found in chapter D and at portal.koncon.nl.

Students who wish to continue their research after completing the Master's programme can enrol for a doctoral programme geared to their artistic practice. The Royal Conservatoire's doctoral programme is offered in association with the Academy of Creative and Performing Arts (ACPA) at Leiden University and the docARTES programme. You can read more about the possibilities of studying for a PhD in the arts in section E.5 below.

E.3 Lectorate

A research group has been formed to strengthen the role of research in the Royal Conservatoire. It is chaired by the lector, Paul Craenen, who brings together the research conducted in the Bachelor's, Master's and doctoral programmes, supervises research projects carried out by teachers and organises events relating to research. The purpose of the lectorate is to create a lively research culture within the Royal Conservatoire and to promote an inquisitive attitude among both students and teachers.

Paul Craenen's lectorate is devoted to the theme of Music, Education & Society and focuses on the changing role and meaning of musical expertise in contemporary culture and society, and on the consequences of these changes for the curriculum of higher music education. How can a programme of professional music education prepare students for a constantly evolving musical culture? What cultural developments is it essential to incorporate in music programmes? What are the values and the added value of musical traditions, niches and specialisations in a globalising world? How can the creators of music help to provide answers for the complex issues of our time?

Research is not only an important aspect of the training of the musicians of the future, it can also enhance the professional practice of teachers at the Royal Conservatoire. Through the lectorate, the Conservatoire therefore encourages its teachers to engage in research. Every year the lectorate issues a Call for Proposals from teachers with ideas for research. Teachers who do not yet have a Master's degree are offered the possibility of following a two-year Master's programme in which research is a key element. Teachers are also encouraged to study for a PhD and/or present their research at conferences and symposia.

E.4 Research results: the Research Catalogue

The results of artistic research conducted at the Royal Conservatoire are archived and disseminated through the Research Catalogue (see: researchcatalogue.net). This online multimedia database is an international platform on which research can be presented and enhanced with visual and audio fragments. It is a tool that reflects our vision of artistic research, which assigns equal value to artistic and written material. The Research Catalogue is used for all Master's research projects and for research by teachers. The best research projects by teachers and students are published on the Royal Conservatoire's website at koncon.nl/research.

E.5 PhD in the arts

After completing the Master's programme, you can continue your artistic research in the doctoral programme of the Academy of Creative and Performing Arts (ACPA) at Leiden University. By studying for a PhD, you will add an academic dimension to your musical practice through reflection and theoretical underpinning as you analyse your professional activities both academically and artistically. The aim of the programme is to provide you with knowledge that broadens and deepens your professional career.

For a doctoral course at the ACPA you will normally follow the docARTES programme, which is offered jointly by the universities of Leiden and Louvain, the conservatories of The Hague, Amsterdam and Antwerp, the Lemmens Institute in Louvain and the Orpheus Institute in Ghent. The docARTES programme begins with a two-year doctoral curriculum, in which PhD candidates improve their academic knowledge and research methodological skills. They then continue their research individually for several more years. Every PhD candidate is advised by a team of supervisors throughout the programme. The PhD graduation ceremony, consisting of a public defence and an artistic presentation, is held in Leiden.

More information about the programme, enrolment and admission can be found at docartes.be.

More information about doctoral programmes in the arts at Leiden University, as well as earlier research projects, can be found at universiteitleiden.nl via Research – ACPA.

F. Organisation – University of the Arts and Royal Conservatoire The Hague

F.1 University of the Arts The Hague and Executive Board

The University of the Arts The Hague is the overarching organizational entity with the Royal Academy of Art and the Royal Conservatoire as its faculties. Each of the faculties has its own Principal. There are also two interfaculty programmes: ArtScience and the School for Young Talent. The university's mission is as follows:

Art is of incalculable value, both intrinsically and in terms of the quality of life. The University of the Arts The Hague plays its part by educating artists who can play a prominent and inspiring role in the creation, development, performance and innovation in the arts in a global context.

The university carries out this mission with a wide range of educational and artistic activities. It provides education, organises projects, performances and exhibitions, is active in international collaborative and exchange programmes, promotes interdisciplinary education and has made research one of its core activities. The University's core values are excellence, a critical and inquisitive attitude, innovation, tradition, an international orientation, diversity, responsibility and cooperation.

You will find a link to the 'Institutional Plan 2019-2024', which describes the university's identity, educational vision and approach, at koncon.nl/university.

The Executive Board manages the university's affairs and is responsible for achieving the university's objectives and its strategy, funding and policy. The Executive Board is accountable to the Supervisory Board. It reports on its activities in the annual report.

The structure of the Executive Board has recently changed. In this new structure, the Executive Board consists of one person: Huug de Deugd. He leads the university together with the directors of both faculties (both formally not members of the Executive Board).

In association with Leiden University, the University of the Arts has established the Academy of Creative and Performing Arts (ACPA), in which both universities offer courses and research projects (including a doctoral programme) for each other's students. The director of the ACPA is appointed by the Executive Board of Leiden University's Faculty of Humanities on the nomination of the Executive Board of the University of the Arts.

Information for students, teachers and other staff members about the university's regulations and protocols and its articles of association can be found on the website hogeschoolderkunsten.nl.

F.2 Interfaculties School for Young Talent and ArtScience

There are two interfaculty programmes jointly offered by the Royal Conservatoire and the Royal Academy of Art: the School for Young Talent and ArtScience.

At the School for Young Talent, promising young students with artistic talent can combine an intensive preparatory course in dance, music, art or design with regular primary and secondary education in a single institution. The course meets high international standards. The students attend school together and additionally focus on their own disciplines, but all share the pleasure and passion of exploring and expanding their creative boundaries.

The ArtScience interfaculty offers an interdisciplinary Bachelor's and Master's programme that fosters curiosity-driven research as an approach for the making of art. The programme treats art and science as a continuum and promotes the development of new art forms and artistic languages. The ArtScience interfaculty collaborates closely with Leiden University's Academy of Creative and Performing Arts and Media Technology MSc programme. ArtScience has an interdisciplinary focus that intersects the existing fields of music, visual arts, media art, humanities and the natural sciences. The staff originates from a variety of artistic cultures and disciplines and is unique in its scope.

Further information can be found at svjt.nl (School for Young Talent) and interfaculty.nl (ArtScience).

F.3 Exam Committee

The Executive Board appoints the Royal Conservatoire's Exam Committee, whose task is to ensure that exams, presentations and final presentations are organised properly. The Exam Committee's responsibilities include appointing the committees of examiners, awarding diplomas, granting exemptions and monitoring compliance with the Education and Examination Regulations. Its mandate is laid down in the University of the Arts' Exam Committee Regulations. The Exam Committee's Rules of Procedure lay down the rules and regulations governing the performance of the committee's tasks. Students can apply to the Exam Committee for an exemption from a subject in the curriculum on the basis of previous studies or previously acquired competences. The procedure for granting exemptions is laid down in the Education and Examination Regulations.

Further information about the Exam Committee can be found at portal.koncon.nl (Advisory bodies).

F.4 Study Programme Committee

The Royal Conservatoire's Study Programme Committee has the right of approval with respect to some provisions of the Education and Examination Regulations and monitors compliance with the regulations. The committee also provides solicited and unsolicited advice on all matters relating to the education. The committee's members include representatives of the teaching staff and students from various programmes. The committee's statutory duties and the rules governing its composition and procedures are laid down in the Charter of the Study Programme Committees of the University of the Arts (see hogeschoolderkunsten.nl).

Further information about the Study Programme Committee can be found at portal.koncon.nl (Advisory bodies).

F.5 Conservatoire Council and University Council

The University of the Arts has two Faculty Councils of Representatives: one for the Royal Academy of Art (Academy Council) and one for the Royal Conservatoire (Conservatoire Council). The Faculty Councils include representatives of staff and students. The School for Young Talent has its own separate Faculty Council. The members of the Conservatoire Council are elected. Staff members are elected for three years, student members for two years.

The University Council is chosen from among the members of the Academy Council and the Conservatoire Council, supplemented by one representative each from the interfaculty ArtScience and the interfaculty School for Young Talent. The rules governing participation by staff and students in the formulation of the university's policy can be found in the Regulations on Participation of the University of the Arts The Hague, see hogeschoolderkunst.nl. The regulations provide a framework for the communication between the Executive Board and the University Council and between the principals of the faculties and the respective faculty councils.

Further information about the University and Conservatoire Councils can be found at portal.koncon.nl (Advisory bodies).

F.6 Student Charter of the University of the Arts The Hague

The University of the Arts The Hague has a Student Charter setting out the rights and obligations of students. The Student Charter contains information about enrolment, education and research, exams, student facilities, house rules and legal protection. The Student Charter is published on the University's website at hogeschoolderkunst.nl (see Students – Student Charter).

F.7 Student Panels

In each department of the Royal Conservatoire, student panels take place two or three times a year. Students can participate in these panels and get the chance to discuss issues they encounter that are relevant for the entire group. In preparation for the student panel, an agenda is sent to the students, for which they can make suggestions. Some agenda points are fixed. For example, social safety is currently on the agenda of every meeting.

The head of department is the chair of the student panel, the coordinator is responsible for the minutes of the meeting. These minutes will be anonymised and are shared with the students who were present during the panel before they are made public.

The discussions during the student panels are an important source of information for the continuous improvement of the education at the Royal Conservatoire. Furthermore, Critical Friends who visit a department can use the information from student panels as a starting point to make their visit as productive as possible.

Apart from student panels, students can give feedback on their study programme in various other ways. Examples are the National Student Survey (NSE) and course evaluations. Throughout the academic year, you can give us your feedback on the course(s) you are taking. Scan the QR-code below to fill in the questionnaire.

For more information on ways in which you can give feedback, look at the Quality Culture page at portal.koncon.nl.

F.8 Student Counsellor

The student counsellor is the contact person with whom students can discuss a variety of issues, including practical matters such as study financing from funds, but also personal problems. Students can approach the student counsellor themselves. The student counsellor also maintains close contact with the tutors, coordinators and main subject teachers, who can often provide initial assistance and can refer a student to the student counsellor if further help is needed. The student counsellor's assistance can also extend to exploring with the student what

To whom do I go for guidance?

Tutor (bachelor 1-3)

All students are assigned a tutor at the start of their first year, whose role is to help you reflect on your study and assist in monitoring your progress. You can find your tutor's name in the lecture timetable. Consultations with the tutor are confidential.

Inappropriate Behaviour Complaints Committee and Confidential Counsellors

You can turn to the Inappropriate Behaviour Complaints Committee and the (external) Confidential Counsellors with serious matters about inappropriate behaviour and the safety of your environment. The names of the members of the Committee and the Confidential Counsellors can be found at portal.koncon.nl.

Conservatoire Council (Deelmedezeggenschapsraad)

The Conservatoire Council, consisting of students, teachers and non-academic staff, is an important consultation body and provides advice to the Executive Board. Matters that are discussed are education, day-to-day management, finances, personnel and facility matters. The Conservatoire Council can be contacted via dmr@koncon.nl.

Student Counsellor

Elke de Roos is our student counsellor, with whom you can discuss a variety of issues, including practical matters such as study financing, but also personal problems, or what help might be available outside the school. The meetings with the student counsellor are confidential. Contact Elke via e.deroos@koncon.nl, more information: portal.koncon.nl.

The Study Programme Committee (Opleidingscommissie)

The committee's members include representatives of the teaching staff and students from various programmes. They have the right to give feedback on the content of study programmes, and on the approval of and compliance with the articles of the Education and Examination Regulations (OER). The Study Programme Committee can be contacted via oc@koncon.nl.

Exam Committee (Examencommissie)

The role of the Exam Committee is to monitor all assessment and examination procedures at the Royal Conservatoire. Complaints on assessment procedures can be directed to this committee. The Exam Committee can be contacted via examencommissie.kc@koncon.nl.

Quality Culture

Do you want to give feedback on the quality of your learning experience? You can contact the Quality Culture Office, which has the responsibility to monitor the quality of all conservatoire activities. You can contact the office directly, join the student panels that are set up in each department or reply to regular student surveys. The Quality Culture Office can be contacted via qualityculture@koncon.nl.

help might be available outside the school. Naturally, in every case the final decision on what further action should be taken lies with the student. The meetings with the student counsellor are confidential. Practical issues can usually be resolved in one or two half-hour sessions. A longer series of meetings can sometimes be arranged, particularly for students with a disability such as ADHD, Asperger or dyslexia, who are entitled to special assistance by virtue of the Dutch Equal Treatment Act.

Further information is available from Elke de Roos at e.deroos@koncon.nl or at koncon.nl/studentcounsellor.

F.9 Quality Culture

At the Royal Conservatoire, we want to stimulate a dialogue about what goes well and what can be improved. We invite students to take an active part in this and to provide us with feedback wherever possible. In this way, students and staff work together towards an overall quality culture. We have designed our Quality Culture approach as a ∞ lemniscate. The lemniscate is an old global symbol for infinity, eternal movement or for value that increases without limit. It is also perceived as a symbol for harmony and balance. The Quality Culture approach at the Royal Conservatoire is based on our conviction that by connecting internal and external knowledge and feedback, the quality of both our improvement processes and external accountability can be optimised and conducted successfully.

The concept is illustrated in the image on the next page. The results of all quality culture instruments are published on the Quality Culture page at portal.koncon.nl.

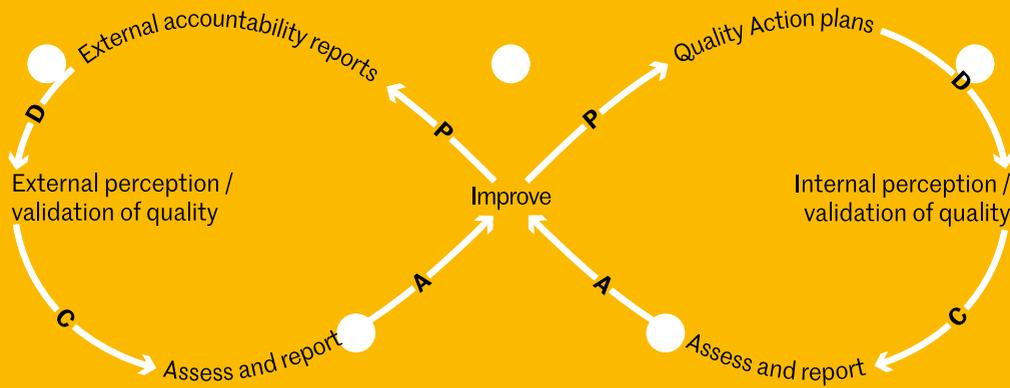

F.10 Safe study environment

It goes without saying that the University of the Arts seeks to provide a safe environment for study (and work). A safe environment is a prerequisite for studying successfully. We are continually endeavouring to create a climate that prevents transgressive behaviour and to recognise and tackle any signs of such behaviour in good time.

However, despite the high priority we give to integrity and openness, we are unfortunately unable to rule out the occurrence of incidents. Experiencing undesirable or unacceptable behaviour by teachers, staff or (fellow) students can create a sense of insecurity. This can lead to complaints, especially if there proves to be insufficient opportunity for people to broach the subject of undesirable behaviour with each other.

Experience has taught us that the majority of complaints are due to circumstances relating to how we communicate with each other. The chance of transgressive behaviour is considerably reduced in a culture where students, teachers and staff are used to addressing each other about their attitudes and the way they behave.

Should you unfortunately find yourself in a situation that detrimentally affects your performance at the university, there are a number of ways to broach the matter. The best approach naturally depends on the circumstances.

Complaints come in different shapes and sizes. We divide them into the following three categories:

- Complaints about the content and organisation of teaching and the general management of the institution. In this case, the initiative lies with the notifier. See the Rules of Procedure for the Board of Appeal for Examinations and the Disputes Procedure at hogeschoolderkunsten.nl.
- Complaints about undesirable behaviour such as sexual harassment, aggression and violence, bullying, racism and discrimination. In this case, the initiative lies with the notifier. Read more on Complaints of Inappropriate Behaviour at hogeschoolderkunsten.nl.
- Complaints about lack of integrity through abuse of power, negligence, fraud, theft, embezzlement, corruption, etc. In this case, the Executive Board of the institution takes charge of the complaint. See the Code of Integrity and the Whistleblowing Regulations at hogeschoolderkunsten.nl.

What you should do

1. First, talk to someone. Students can speak to the coordinator or the head of the department; teachers and staff can speak to their manager.
2. Get in touch with one of the confidential advisers or the student counsellor to notify them of the complaint or for preliminary advice about whether or not to pursue the complaint through a formal procedure. You will find the contact details for the confidential adviser at hogeschoolderkunsten.nl and portal.koncon.nl; and/or
3. Submit a complaint via one of the digital complaints desks: klachtenloket@kabk.nl; klachtenloket@koncon.nl; klachtenloket@hdkdenhaag.nl.

F.11 Health & Well-being

F.11.1 Health & well-being in the curriculum

The Royal Conservatoire devotes attention to your health and well-being. We offer various electives relating to health and well-being in both the Bachelor's and Master's programmes, including courses such as Alexander Technique, Yoga for Musicians and Bodywork – Dance. In addition to these physical courses, which are designed to help musicians to move, breathe and play more freely, there are courses with advice on healthy and effective methods of studying. Since musicians face an above-average risk of damage to their hearing, the subject of how to protect your hearing is covered during Start-Up! (the introductory week for first-year students).

Considerable attention is devoted to the students' well-being in the Dance curriculum, with lessons in subjects such as yoga, pilates, body conditioning, nutrition and injury prevention. The Dance department also has its own medical staff, comprising specialists, physiotherapists and dieticians.

To find more information, tips and suggestions, for example about our Wellbeing Wednesdays, have a look at the Your Health & Practice Toolbox at portal.koncon.nl.

F.11.2 Health complaints

It is important to seek help in good time if you have any health complaints. The student counsellor (see F.8) can help in this. Go to the student counsellor page at portal.koncon.nl for an overview of contact persons for Mensendieck Exercise Therapy and physiotherapy, as well as doctors specialising in the treatment of dancers and musicians.

F.11.3 Sports facilities

Students of the Royal Conservatoire can make use of the Sports Centre at The Hague University of Applied Sciences (THUAS) at a reduced student rate. The Sports Centre offers various indoor sports and group fitness classes, and has a brand-new gym for individual workouts. It is located near the Hollands Spoor train station in the centre of The Hague. Further information: thehagueuniversity.com/practical-matters/facilities/sports.

F.12 Diversity and Inclusion

In striving to create a warm, welcoming and supportive environment for our entire community, we provide contextualised support, lectures, training sessions, workshops and events (for example 'Share the Stage') for students as well as teachers. These activities, coordinated by the Diversity & Inclusion Working Group, are designed to put inclusion at the heart of our education by creating awareness, fostering a sense of community and promoting empowerment. The Conservatoire encourages the use of inclusive language, in addition to the more general measures it adopts in areas such as social safety, curriculum development, research and HR (recruitment and retention of staff) in collaboration with the relevant departments. The goal is to incorporate the principles of diversity and inclusion in policy and practice as part of a process of systemic and cultural change.

G. Collaboration with Leiden University

Since 2001, the University of the Arts The Hague and Leiden University have been partners in the field of education and artistic research. The collaboration is embodied in the Academy of Creative and Performing Arts (ACPA), which is part of Leiden University's Faculty of Humanities.

G.1 Academic electives via ACPA

If you are looking for a further challenge in addition to your Bachelor's or Master's studies at the Royal Conservatoire, the ACPA electives might be something for you. Courses such as Music Cognition, Music x Technology, and Values in Music are some of the academic electives offered at Leiden University in association with the Royal Conservatoire.

You can also follow other electives at Leiden University. There are more than 1300 electives offered by the various faculties of Leiden University to choose from. Bachelor's students can also choose Music in Context, a minor whose curriculum includes three ACPA courses.

For the complete list of academic electives, go to Leiden University's study guide at studiegids.leidenuniv.nl and type 'elective' in the search bar. On successful completion of an academic elective, your results will be entered in OSIRIS and, on request, you will receive a certificate with the study results from ACPA.

G.2 Practicum Musicae (PM)

Practicum Musicae is a programme for students at Leiden University with musical aspirations. Participants in the programme can follow all of their elective subjects at the Royal Conservatoire and so broaden their academic education with training in music. Students wishing to join the programme must do a theory test and an audition to demonstrate that they have the ability to attain the level required for admission to the Bachelor's programme after three years.

Students in the Practicum Musicae receive 50 minutes of lessons in their main subject every week, as well as 100 minutes of lessons in Elementary Music Theory and 25 minutes of lessons in ensemble playing every fortnight. Every year the programme offers the students opportunities to gain stage experience in the form of a series of concerts at the Royal Conservatoire and in Leiden. The regular Practicum Musicae programme takes three years. You will receive a certificate on successful completion of the course.

For more information, visit the PM Curriculum Handbook and the PM page on portal.koncon.nl.

H. Amare

The Royal Conservatoire is housed in Amare, which opened its doors on 2 September 2021. This house for culture, education, events and meetings has four large theatres and concert halls, various meeting rooms, a large number of public spaces, and two restaurants.

The cohabitation with professional organisations in a building located in the very centre of the city and with excellent performance and teaching facilities provides unprecedented possibilities for the Conservatoire. For example, it will elevate the existing artistic cooperation with Nederlands Dans Theater and the Residentie Orkest to a higher level and allow for joint programming. In addition, the internationally oriented organisations in Amare will be able to connect with the local, often diverse and multinational communities in the city, creating a truly 'glocal' environment.

Amare partners

The former 'Dans- en Muziekcentrum' (DMC) / Zuiderstrandtheater is now called Stichting Amare and is responsible for the operation of the Amare building and theatres and for the programming of events. In addition to being home to Residentie Orkest, Nederlands Dans Theater and the Royal Conservatoire, Amare will present a rich and cosmopolitan range of dance, music and cabaret productions from around the world and featuring established international artists as well as local talent.

Nederlands Dans Theater (NDT) is one of the leading contemporary dance companies in the world. The group is based in The Hague, but performs annually for an international audience of more than 150,000 visitors in Europe, America, Asia and Australia. Since its foundation in 1959, the company has built up a rich repertoire of more than 600 ballets by master choreographers Jiří Kylián and Hans van Manen, Sol León & Paul Lightfoot, Crystal Pite and Marco Goecke, Johan Inger, Medhi Walerski, Ohad Naharin, Alexander Ekman, Gabriela Carrizo, Franck Chartier, Hofesh Shechter, Edward Clug and Sharon Eyal & Gai Behar and many others.

The Royal Conservatoire's Dance department and NDT work closely together. They jointly organise the Young Talent Project, an annual talent development project based on works from NDT's repertoire, new work and solos, all performed under the direction of choreographers associated with NDT.

The Residentie Orkest is the orchestra of, for, in and from The Hague. Closely related to the city, the orchestra actively uses classical music to connect and stimulate all residents and visitors in The Hague. The Residentie Orkest is a byword for a top-quality musical experience with an adventurous profile and dynamic élan. The music of the Residentie Orkest challenges and surprises. The orchestra is always looking for the contemporary relevance of music in a fresh and novel way.

The Classical Music department of the Royal Conservatoire offers the Master's specialisation Orchestra Master, which provides a unique opportunity for students to play full concert programmes with the Residentie Orkest and receive coaching from a member of the orchestra. The Composition department also collaborates with the Residentie Orkest, for example in the One Minute Symphony initiative, for which Composition students take to the streets to make contact with a resident of The Hague as a source of inspiration for a short new work. The ensuing One Minute Symphony is then performed during the Residentie Orkest's Symphonic Friday concert series.

- 4.1 The criteria for admission via an entrance examination as referred to in Article 7.29 of the Higher Education and Research Act are set out in the section 'Entry Requirements' on the pages of the individual programmes on the Royal Conservatoire's website.

- 4.2 The requirements referred to in the first paragraph are met by passing an entrance examination set by the admissions committee on the basis of the entry requirements

Article 5: Admission requirements for the Master of Music

Candidates wishing to enrol in the Master of Music must meet the following requirements:

- 5.1 Candidates must write a study plan, the Master Project Plan or Master Study Plan, and submit it to the committee of examiners before the start of the practical entrance examination. The criteria to be met by the Master Project/ Study Plan can be found on the Royal Conservatoire's website at koncon.nl.
- 5.2 Candidates must have been awarded the Bachelor of Music degree (or the former Teaching Musician/Docerend Musicus diploma) or – in the case of the discipline Education – the Bachelor of Music in Education degree (formerly School music teacher diploma) in the Netherlands or abroad.
- 5.3 If a period of a year or more will have elapsed between obtaining the Bachelor's degree and the start of the planned Master's programme, the candidate must take the entrance examination for the Master's programme. The result of the entrance examination is decisive.

C. Structure of the degree programmes

Article 6: Education units

As set out in Article 2.3 of these regulations, the programme consists of a coherent set of education units (courses/modules), internships and practical assignments.

- 6.1 If a course curriculum is changed in a particular year with the consequence that the assessments for that course will be revised in the succeeding academic year, students who do not complete that course in that year are required to follow the new course with the revised assessments.

Article 7: Education units and the associated tests

- 7.1 Paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article refer to the Curriculum Handbooks, which formally constitute part of this study guide and which describe the education units and the associated study load and tests in the propaedeutic phase and the post-propaedeutic phase. The curriculum handbooks can be found on the programme pages on the Royal Conservatoire's website at koncon.nl. The conditions that determine the sequence of education units are laid down in Article 8.
- 7.2 The Curriculum Handbooks describe the education units and the associated tests and the final examination for each discipline during the propaedeutic phase, as well as the study credits that can be earned. The credits earned during the propaedeutic phase are valid for six years. The Exam Committee may decide to extend their validity at the end of that period.
- 7.3 The Curriculum Handbooks describe the education units and the tests and final examination for each discipline during the post-propaedeutic phase, as well as the study credits that can be earned. The credits earned during the post-propaedeutic phase are valid for six years. The Exam Committee may decide to extend their validity at the end of that period.

Article 8: Sequence of courses and exams

- 8.1 Entry requirements apply for some courses. These requirements must be complied with before students can take the course. The entry requirements are laid down in the course descriptions which can be found in the Curriculum Handbooks on the Programmes pages on the Royal Conservatoire's website at koncon.nl. Entry requirements for some electives and minors can be found in the course descriptions in the Bachelor Electives & Minors Handbook and the Master Electives Handbook at koncon.nl/electives.
- 8.2 At the request of a student, the Exam Committee may allow the student to take tests in higher years before all of the tests in the preceding year or years have been passed.
- 8.3 The provisions of Article 7.2 regarding the validity of credits earned from tests during the propaedeutic phase remain fully applicable.

- 8.4 Students will only be admitted to the final presentation if all other components of the programme have been passed. The head of the department may decide to derogate from this provision if there is a realistic possibility that these components of the programme will be successfully completed within the current academic year, or as soon as possible in the subsequent academic year.

Article 9: The propaedeutic phase; recommendation on continuation of studies at end of first year

- 9.1 The propaedeutic examination is passed if students have obtained 60 ECTS according to the curriculum.
- 9.2 At the end of the first year of enrolment in the propaedeutic phase, students are informed of whether they can continue their studies on the basis of the progress with their studies. Students who have obtained the 60 ECTS allocated to the propaedeutic phase will receive a positive recommendation. Students who have obtained at least 50 ECTS¹ are allowed to enter the post-propaedeutic phase and must also obtain the credits that have not yet been earned in the propaedeutic phase. Students who have obtained fewer than 50 ECTS will be given a binding negative study recommendation at the end of first year. The study recommendation is made by the principal of the faculty. Before making a binding negative recommendation, the principal will give the student the opportunity to be heard. Student will receive a digital copy of the binding negative study recommendation from the head of the Education Service Centre (ESC) on behalf of the directorate.
- 9.3 A binding negative study recommendation will be made in the event of:
- the failure to obtain adequate results in courses (at least 50 ECTS)
 - the absence of any prospect of any improvement or change in the situation
 - the absence of exceptional circumstances as laid down in or by virtue of the Higher Education and Research Act.

¹ First-year students who have suffered a study delay due to the Corona crisis and who have therefore failed to meet the BSA standard in the 2021/22 academic year, will be given the possibility to meet the BSA standard in the 2022/23 academic year.

These circumstances are exhaustive:

- the illness of the person concerned
 - physical, sensory or other functional disability of the individual concerned
 - the pregnancy of the individual concerned
 - exceptional family circumstances
 - membership, including chairmanship, of the University Council, the Conservatoire Council or any other formal faculty committee or other circumstances specified by the university under which the individual concerned engages in activities relating to the organisation and management of the university's affairs
 - membership of the board of a student organisation of a reasonable size with full legal status, or a similar organisation of a reasonable size whose objective is to promote the general public interest and which actually pursues that objective. In this case, only the positions of chair, secretary and treasurer qualify. Students must notify the head of their department and the principal of the existence of such circumstances in writing as soon as possible.
- 9.4 Every student shall receive a warning at the end of the first semester that a binding negative study recommendation will be made at the end of the first year if 50 ECTS have not been obtained in that year. This written notice will be signed by the principal. The warning shall be sent digitally to the student by the head of the Education Service Centre (ESC) on behalf of the directorate.
- 9.5 A binding negative study recommendation, signed by the principal and stating the reasons, will be sent to the student by registered post and by email in week 28, including a reference to the possibility of appealing to the Board of Appeal for Examinations. Appeals may be lodged within 30 days of receipt of the binding negative study recommendation. Appeals can be lodged with the Board of Appeals for Examinations of the University of the Arts The Hague, P.O.Box 11670, 2502 AR The Hague.
- 9.6 A binding negative study recommendation results in the student's deregistration. The student may not re-enrol at the Royal Conservatoire for the programme for which the recommendation was made.

- 9.7 If a student requests deregistration before 1 February in the first year of his/her studies, no binding negative study recommendation will be made. A student who submits a request for deregistration no later than 31 January shall be deregistered with effect from 1 February and will not receive a binding negative study recommendation. These students will be able to start the same programme in a subsequent study year, in which case they will retain any results that have already been obtained (with the proviso that the validity of those results shall lapse after six years, as stated in article 7.2).

Article 10: Entry and progress with studies in the post-propaedeutic phase

- 10.1 Students who have passed the propaedeutic examination in a particular discipline can only be admitted to the post-propaedeutic phase of the same programme in the same discipline.
- 10.2 Progress with the studies in the post-propaedeutic phase is monitored through regular contact between the student and the teacher of the main subject, the teachers of the other subjects, the tutor and the head of the department. The results of the student's progress are registered in the OSIRIS student progress monitoring system.

The results are announced immediately and inserted in the student's study progress overview. For an education unit for which a pass grade has been received the student earns the number of credits prescribed for that education unit.

For the disciplines Composition and Sonology, parts of the final presentation are not public. In the case of the Bachelor of Dance, the final performance – not being a (concluding) assessment – is preceded by a final assessment in private.

19.8 Confidentiality

- The feedback meeting after the (final) presentation is confidential and may not be recorded.
- The teachers and members of the university's staff who have access to the assessment files by virtue of their position, via the faculty's digital student monitoring system or otherwise, must treat this information in confidence.

Article 20: Other forms of tests (reports, theses, papers, activities with compulsory participation, internships, etc.)

For parts of the study programme that are concluded with tests other than those described above, the method of assessment is described in the course descriptions.

F. Results of exam components and exams

Article 21: Determination and publication of results of tests

- 21.1 The result of tests that constitute part of an examination is expressed numerically, with a qualifying result, pass/fail, or an attendance result. In the case of numerical assessments, a pass grade is equal to or greater than 5.5 before rounding off. Attendance is compulsory for some courses. This is specified in the course descriptions.
- 21.2 The examiner announces the results of every written test no later than three weeks after the date of the test via OSIRIS. The results of oral tests are entered in OSIRIS Docent no later than two weeks after the date of the test.
- 21.3 The periods of three weeks and two weeks stipulated in paragraph 2 may be shorter if the result of part of the study programme is important for passing the propaedeutic phase or for meeting the requirements for admission to a part of the study programme.
- 21.4 For a period of thirty days commencing on the day after the disclosure of the result, the student can make a request to inspect the assessed written work or the report of the oral test and the accompanying grading scheme under the supervision of the examiner.
- 21.5 The head of department determines when and where the inspection can take place, having regard to the aforementioned deadline. Students who demonstrate that they are or were unable to attend at the specified time and place for reasons beyond their control will be offered a further opportunity, where possible within the period prescribed in the previous paragraph.
- 21.6 A minimum of one resit per academic year is allowed for all tests and final presentations as long as the form of assessment allows it. The resit can be taken at a time to be determined by the head of the department. Students will be informed of that time well in advance. Failure to appear at a test or a resit for any reason qualifies as a fail. If a student is prevented from attending due to personal circumstances, the provisions of Article 16 apply. Different rules apply for the Dance and Opera departments in view of their specific method of assessment. Those rules can be found in the Curriculum Handbook Dance and the addendum to the Education and Examination Regulations for the DNOA, respectively.

Article 22: Determination and announcement of results of examinations; certificates and declarations

- 22.1 The Exam Committee determines whether all of the components of a study programme have been completed on the basis of the student's results as entered in OSIRIS. If so, the certificate can be granted as proof that the final examination has been passed. The diploma, the transcript and the accompanying documents will not be issued if the tuition fees have not been paid in full or if courses that are part of the Bachelor's or Master's curriculum have not been completed.
- 22.2 The Exam Committee also attaches an International Diploma Supplement to the certificate, the purpose of which is to specify the nature and content of the completed programme with a view to international recognition of the degree. The International Diploma Supplement refers to the transcript of records. The supplement contains a list of all education units that have been completed and the results attained.
- 22.3 Bachelor students who have passed a minor also receive a certificate for that course.
- 22.4 Students who have passed at least one test but who cannot be granted a certificate as referred to in the first paragraph may, on request, receive a declaration issued by the Exam Committee with a list of the tests that have been passed.
- 22.5 Master's students at the Royal Conservatoire (Master of Music and Master of Sonology) are eligible for the designation 'cum laude' if they meet all of the following criteria:
1. was awarded a grade of at least 9.0 in the assessment of the concluding final presentation;
 2. was awarded a grade of at least 9.0 in the assessment of the final research presentation and, if the discipline includes the Master Project, the final assessment of the Professional Integration Trajectory;
 3. passed all components of the programme at the first attempt;

4. was not granted exemptions for more than half of the study programme;
5. has been enrolled for the Master's programme for a maximum of two academic years;
6. the Exam Committee has never established fraud by the student.

Whether the student has met all the requirements is determined retrospectively by the student administration office. The designation 'cum laude' is recorded in an attachment to the certificate. The designation 'cum laude' can also be awarded to students of the DNOA. For the conditions, see the addendum to the DNOA's Education and Examination Regulations.

22.6 With proper motivation, the committee of examiners may also award graduating Bachelor's and Master's students the designation 'with distinction'. In contrast to 'cum laude', this designation relates exclusively to the final presentation. This designation is also recorded in an attachment to the certificate.

22.7 Students may not obtain more than one degree per CROHO code. If a student who has completed a Bachelor's or Master's programme decides to follow a second programme in the same CROHO category, no second certificate will be granted on successful completion of the second programme, only a second diploma supplement

G. Exemptions

Article 23: Exemptions

23.1 In response to a request by a student via OSIRIS Student, supported by the head of the relevant department, the Exam Committee may decide to grant an exemption for one or more parts of an examination on the grounds of the possession of a document, diploma, certificate or assessment showing that the student has already met the requirements of that part of the examination. Guidelines for applying for exemptions can be found on the KC portal.

23.2 The Exam Committee's procedure for granting exemptions is as follows:

- a. New students must apply for an exemption before 15 October via OSIRIS Student. The student is required to motivate their request and upload all relevant documents such as transcripts of records and diplomas from domestic or foreign institutions. Students who are already studying at the Royal Conservatoire and wish to apply for an exemption for the following academic year must submit their application before 15 June so that courses do not have to be scheduled unnecessarily.
- b. The application is forwarded via OSIRIS to the coordinator of the department to check whether it is complete. If this is not the case, the application will be returned to the student via the system for completion. As soon as the application is complete, it will be sent to the relevant head of department for their signature. The head of department hereby endorses the application. In this phase, it is possible that the head of department may still seek advice from, for example, a teacher. If the application is complete and signed, the application will be sent to the Exam Committee via the system. Applications must be submitted to the Exam Committee before 15 November.
- c. The application for an exemption is discussed at the next meeting of the Exam Committee. The outcome can be 'approved', 'rejected' or 'declared inadmissible'. The student will be notified via the system.
- d. The Exam Committee has fixed the period of validity of an exemption at six (6) years, provided that the curriculum remains unchanged, and that period can be extended by the committee.
- e. If the exemption is granted, that part of the study programme is regarded as exempt or the prescribed number of credits is granted.
- f. If the request has been granted, the Planning department revises the student's timetable accordingly.

H. Deregistration and restitution

The rules on deregistration and restitution of tuition fees can be found on the website at koncon.nl and on the KC portal.

I. Irregularities

Article 24: Irregularities

- 24.1 The committee of examiners may exclude any student who is guilty of any irregularities in connection with any part of an examination (as referred to in Article 14.1.5) from further participation in the examination. The Exam Committee shall be notified in writing of any such decision.
- 24.2 If the irregularity is only discovered after the examination the Exam Committee may withhold the degree referred to in Article 7.11 of the Higher Education and Research Act from the student or decide that the student concerned can only be awarded the degree after taking a new examination in the parts designated by the Exam Committee or the principal in the manner prescribed by them.
- 24.3 The Exam Committee may decide to withdraw the right of the student concerned to take one or more tests or examinations for a period not exceeding one (1) year. In serious cases, the Exam Committee may advise the competent authority to deregister the student permanently.
- 24.4 Before making a decision pursuant to the first, second or third paragraph, the Exam Committee must hear the examiner and the student. The Exam Committee informs the student of its decision immediately and ensure that it is recorded in writing.
- 24.5 The Exam Committee writes a report of its decision and the facts on which it is based and sends the report to the principal.

J. Retention periods and appeals

Article 25: Retention of documents

- 25.1 The examiner retains the documents referred to in Article 17, paragraph 3, Article 18, paragraph 3 and Article 19, paragraph 3, as well as the papers, the grading schemes and the assessed written work for twelve (12) months after the publication of the results of the tests.

- 25.2 The Student Administration Office maintains a file for each student containing his/her study results and written materials.
- 25.3 The Exam Committee ensures that the institution curates the recorded particulars of each student in the institution's archives in accordance with the legal requirements.
- 25.4 The final presentations are recorded for the purposes of accreditation and quality assurance and are retained for at least seven (7) years as prescribed by law. The recordings of the final presentations (B4, M2, and Artist Certificate) will be made available to students on request.

Article 26: Appeals

- 26.1 If a student objects to a substantive or procedural aspect of a test (in any part of the study programme), he/she will discuss the matter in first instance with the committee of examiners.
- 26.2 If this consultation does not produce a solution, the student may submit a request to the Exam Committee for an investigation of the circumstances of the test. To this end the student must submit a clear, reasoned and documented request to the secretary of the Exam Committee two weeks in advance of the next meeting of the Exam Committee. Within that period the Exam Committee will also hear the examiners/members of the relevant committee of examiners. After handling the case, the Exam Committee will inform the student of its findings, if possible, within one (1) week.
- 26.3 In accordance with Article 8, paragraph c of the Exam Committee's rules and regulations, any member of the Exam Committee directly involved in a matter to be dealt with does not take part in making the decision.
- 26.4 This procedure might result in agreement being reached on a resit. If no satisfactory solution can be found, the student can lodge an appeal with the Board of Appeal for Examinations of the University of the Arts The Hague, P.O. Box 11670, 2502 AR The Hague.
- 26.5 The provisions of chapter 8.2 of the Student Charter, Legal Protection, apply to appeals as referred to in the fourth paragraph.

K. Students with a functional impairment

Article 27: Students with a functional impairment

- 27.1 Students with a functional impairment are given the opportunity to sit tests and examinations in a manner that is adapted as far as possible to their personal needs. Students are advised to contact the student counsellor to discuss the necessary modifications. They must then submit a request to the Exam Committee. If necessary, the Exam Committee will seek expert advice before making a decision.
- 27.2 In appropriate cases, students may be offered the possibility of taking tests and examinations in a manner adapted to their personal situation. The decision is left to the discretion of the Exam Committee.

L. Tutoring/coaching

Article 28: Study progress and tutoring/coaching

- 28.1 Students are personally responsible for the progress with their studies. Students have access at all times to an overview of their course results via OSIRIS Student.
- 28.2 Heads of department are responsible for monitoring the progress students are making with their studies. Teachers and tutors also play a role in the individual supervision of students.
- 28.3 Students who fall behind in their studies (or expect to do so) must notify the student counsellor and the head and the coordinator of the relevant department, who will first consider appropriate measures to prevent any study delay. If a delay actually occurs, a revised study plan will be made and submitted to the head of the department and the vice-principal for approval.

M. Closing provisions and entry into force

Article 29: Unforeseen cases

- 29.1 In any cases not provided for in these regulations and on which an immediate decision is required, the Executive Board will make the decision in consultation with the Exam Committee.
- 29.2 Any decision as referred to in the first paragraph will be notified by the principal or his/her deputy as soon as possible to the members of the Exam Committee and the Executive Board.

Article 30: Conversion of study results from the former system

- 30.1 The Exam Committee decides on the value of study results obtained in any year by students who were enrolled for the programmes before the introduction of the Higher Education and Research Act, where applicable in the form of credits, for an examination to be taken in accordance with these Education and Examination Regulations.
- 30.2 For students as referred to in the first paragraph, the conditions laid down in these regulations will apply for tests that have not yet been passed on the entry into force of these regulations, unless the Exam Committee decides otherwise.

Article 31: Entry into force, official title and publication

- 31.1 These regulations enter into force on 1 September 2022.
- 31.2 These regulations can be cited as the Education and Examination Regulations of the Royal Conservatoire.
- 31.3 These regulations will be published on the website koncon.nl, on the Royal Conservatoire's KC portal and in the Study Guide. The Curriculum Handbooks that form part of this Study Guide can be found on the Programmes pages on the website koncon.nl.

J. Admissions regulations Royal Conservatoire

1 Admission requirements for Bachelor's programmes*

- 1.1 Individuals wishing to enrol as a student in the Bachelor's programme must at least comply with the provisions of Article 7.24, Article 7.28, paragraph 1 and paragraph 2, and Article 7.29 of the Dutch Higher Education and Research Act. See also chapter 3 (Enrolment) of the Student Charter.
- 1.2 Equivalent prior education: The principal decides on admission to the programme for students with diplomas other than those referred to in Article 7.24, paragraph 2 of the Higher Education and Research Act, if necessary having regard to the guidelines of the Dutch Organisation for Internationalisation in Education (NUFFIC) on the value of diplomas.

2 Admission requirements and entrance examination for Bachelor's programmes

- 2.1 The criteria for admission via an entrance examination as referred to in Article 7.26a of the Higher Education and Research Act are set out in the section 'Entry Requirements' on the pages of the individual programmes on the Royal Conservatoire's website
- 2.2 The requirements referred to in the first paragraph are met by passing an entrance examination set by the admissions committee on the basis of the entry requirements.
- 2.3 The rules governing supplementary requirements as referred to in Article 7.26a of the Higher Education and Research Act are applicable. During the entrance examination, the admissions committee determines the candidate's aptitude and suitability for music and/or dance education on the basis of his/her talents and skill. There are four assessment criteria for the music education: musical aptitude and suitability, knowledge of elementary music theory and aural skills, motivation/attitude and development potential and proficiency in English (with the exception of the Bachelor of Music in Education programme). The admission criteria are different for each discipline. Further information can be found on the Programmes pages on the website and at koncon.nl/en/application-process.

- 2.4 Upon acceptance by the admissions committee, candidates who come from another conservatoire in the Netherlands, from the Royal Conservatoire's own Preparatory Year or from the School for Young Talent, or from a comparable programme in another country will be graded for the various parts of the study programme. Upon admission, in the first month after enrolment the student must – where applicable – apply for exemptions for the courses that have been followed and completed elsewhere.

3 Admission requirements for the Master of Music programme*

- 3.1 Candidates must have been awarded the Bachelor of Music degree (or the former Teaching Musician/Docerend Musicus diploma) or – in the case of the discipline Education – the Bachelor of Music in Education degree (formerly School music teacher diploma) in the Netherlands or abroad.
- 3.2 If a period of a year or more will have elapsed between obtaining the Bachelor's degree and the start of the planned Master's programme, the candidate must take the entrance examination for the Master's programme. The result of that entrance examination is decisive.
- 3.3 Candidates must write a study plan, the Master Project Plan or Master Study Plan, and submit it to the committee of examiners before the start of the practical entrance examination. The criteria to be met by the Master Project/Study Plan can be found on the Royal Conservatoire's website at koncon.nl.

- 3.4 During the entrance examination, candidates must demonstrate that they possess the artistic and professional skills required for the relevant discipline(s)/specialisation(s).
- 3.5 Candidates must also demonstrate a personal vision of their future studies, the ability to reflect on their own standard and actions, the ability to communicate and collaborate with others and an inquisitive and research-minded attitude.
- 3.6 The intake interview is also intended (in combination with the aforementioned Master Project/Study Plan) to test the candidate's proficiency in English, with the outcome being recorded in the admission form. For candidates who do not sit the entrance examination live, the interview is conducted online. In light of the research component, candidates with insufficient command of English will not be admitted to the Master's programme. See also article 4.5 of these regulations regarding language tests.
- 3.7 The examiners make a recommendation to the principal of the Royal Conservatoire on the basis of the results of the entrance examination. However, a positive recommendation after sitting the entrance examination provides no guarantee that the candidate's application to study for a Master's degree will automatically be honoured. Decisions on the allocation of the available places are made by the principal of the Royal Conservatoire. Candidates will be notified of the decision by the head of the Education Service Centre (ESC) on behalf of the principal.
- 3.8 Different entry requirements apply for admission to the Master's programmes in Sonology and Opera, the Master's specialisations Orchestra Master, Ensemble Academy, Ensemble Percussion, Chamber Music and Complementary Subject, as well as the Master's programmes with the disciplines Ensemble Singing, Theory of Music, Instrumental and Vocal Learning & Teaching, Music Education according to the Kodály concept, ArtScience, New Audiences and Innovative Practice (NAIP) and Audio Communication and Sonology. The entry requirements for these programmes can be found on the Royal Conservatoire's website.

4 General provisions relating to admission to the Bachelor's and Master's programmes

- 4.1 Candidates can enrol directly via Studielink or via the link to the Studielink website on the Royal Conservatoire's website. The admissions procedure opens on 1 October every year. In addition to registering via Studielink, candidates must submit additional materials. For details, see the Royal Conservatoire's website.
- 4.2 In exceptional circumstances and with the consent of the faculty's principal, students who wish to follow another discipline/main subject in the programme in addition to the first discipline/main subject are required to sit an entrance examination as referred to in the second paragraph of Article 2 for the second discipline/main subject. On successful completion of the study programme, the student may not receive more than one degree for the relevant CROHO.
- 4.3 A positive recommendation after sitting the entrance examination means that the candidate is eligible for admission, but does not automatically guarantee that the candidate will be able to follow the programme of his/her choice. The principal of the Royal Conservatoire decides on the allocation of the available places. Students are notified of the decision by the head of the Education Service Centre (ESC) on behalf of the principal.
- 4.4 Validity of enrolment:
- Admission to a programme is only valid for the academic year for which the student is enrolled.
 - Students who cancel their registration in the course of an academic year remain enrolled and retain the results they have obtained provided they enrol again to continue their studies in the next academic year.
 - If a full year has elapsed since deregistration, on reregistration the student is required to sit another entrance examination. Studies may only be interrupted in exceptional circumstances.
 - The principal is mandated by the institution's management to allow exceptions.
- 4.5 Language proficiency
- As a matter of course, the Royal Conservatoire ascertains the written skills and knowledge of and proficiency in the English language of non-Dutch candidates during the entrance examination. The candidate's written skills are assessed on the basis of his/her letter of motivation or study plan and the email correspondence. The level of fluency is determined in the course of an interview with the candidate during the entrance examination. The chair of the admissions committee then decides whether the standard is sufficient to follow the teaching in the chosen programme. The outcome of this evaluation is recorded in writing in the relevant admission form. Candidates who do not possess an adequate command of English will not be admitted to the programme. In cases where there is any doubt, candidates are advised to follow an appropriate course at their own expense.

- The minimum level of proficiency in English prescribed by the Royal Conservatoire for students from non-EU/EEA countries is a score of 6.0 in the IELTS test or level 80 in the TOEFL test. This applies for all students who are nationals of non-EU/EEA countries (with the exception of the United Kingdom, Canada, New Zealand, Australia and the United States of America), regardless of their residence status. These students must demonstrate when applying for a residence permit that they have attained the required level by submitting a certificate for one of the following language proficiency tests: IELTS, TOEFL, TOEIC, or Cambridge English (FCE/CAE/CPE). Certificates of the Institutional TOEFL test, the TOEFL ITP test or other language tests are not accepted.
 - International students who wish to enrol for the Music in Education programme must be in possession of a NT2 diploma.
 - The minimum requirements for candidates for the Preparatory Year of between six (6) and twelve (12) months is a score of 5.0 in the IELTS test; for a Preparatory Year of six (6) months or shorter, the minimum requirement is a score of 5.5 in the IELTS test.
- 4.6 Entrance examinations are administered by an admissions committee, a committee appointed by the institution's Executive Board in accordance with Article 7.26a, paragraph 3 of the Higher Education and Research Act. The Executive Board has delegated its mandate to the faculty's director, who has in turn delegated the composition/appointment of admission committees to the heads of the teaching departments

- 4.7 We recommend students with learning difficulties to discuss the options and responsibilities with the student counsellor as soon as possible.
- 4.8 No appeal is possible against a negative result of an entrance examination or a negative decision on admission. However, candidates may contact the institution for a personal explanation of the decision.

These regulations were established by the Executive Board in July 2022, after approval by the principal with the consent of the Royal Conservatoire's Study Programme Committee and the Conservatoire Council.

*Due to the corona crisis, some (aspiring) students will be unable to meet the criteria for prior education or the admission requirements at the time of enrolment in 2022 because, due to the corona measures, the education could not be provided or followed, an internship could not be completed or one or more examinations, tests or assessments could not be set or taken. The Minister of Education, Culture and Science therefore intends to amend the law so that in certain circumstances institutions will again have the possibility to provisionally admit aspiring students to a succeeding programme in the 2022-2023 academic year. For the complete text of this amendment and the applicable conditions, see chapter 2.4 of the Higher Education Service Document (only in Dutch): rijksoverheid.nl/documenten/publicaties/2020/07/10/servicedocument-ho---aanpak-coronavirus-covid-19.

Glossary of educational terms

Most of the teaching at the Royal Conservatoire is in English. Some of the terms you will frequently encounter are explained below.

Assessment

The methods of assessment adopted for each course, for example the type and number of assignments on which you will be assessed, are to be found in the course descriptions (see 'Course description' below).

Assessment criteria

The assessment criteria are the factors that the teacher or the committee of examiners uses as the basis for assessing exams. You will find the assessment criteria (beoordelingscriteria) for every course, including your main subject, in the Curriculum Handbook. If you have any questions about the assessment criteria, contact the teacher of the course, or in the case of the main subject, your head of department.

Course

The term 'course' is used to designate a subject, for example 'First Year Choir'. All courses together constitute a study programme, successful completion of which leads to a degree.

Course description

A course description is a concise summary of the course, including the content of the course, the learning objectives (leerdoelen), the name of the teacher, the number of credits (see EC/ECTS), the method of assessment along with the assessment criteria, and the grading scale (resultaatschaal). You will find the course descriptions in the Curriculum Handbook.

Credits

See EC/ECTS.

Curriculum

The curriculum is the content of your programme, i.e., the set of courses which together make up your study programme.

Curriculum Handbook

The Curriculum Handbook contains an overview of the programmes offered by a particular department, together with the accompanying course descriptions. Every department has a Curriculum Handbook for its Bachelor's programmes and/or its Master's programmes. The assessment criteria for the main subject are also published in the Curriculum Handbook. You will find the Curriculum Handbook on the Programmes pages on the website and at portal.koncon.nl.

Curriculum overview

The curriculum overview for your study programme contains the title and OSIRIS code of the courses in the programme, the year of the study programme in which you are required to follow each course and the number of credits you can earn with it. You will find the curriculum overview on the Programmes pages on the website and in the Curriculum Handbook (also available via portal.koncon.nl).

Degree

You will find an overview of all programmes that lead to a degree on page 77 of this study guide.

Discipline

Our Bachelor's and Master's programmes embrace various disciplines (studierichtingen). Each discipline has its own curriculum and programme objectives (eindtermen).

EC/ECTS

An ECTS (sometimes abbreviated to EC) is a study credit (studiepunten). Study credits are used to express the study load of a course or programme: 1 ECTS represents 28 hours of study. A four-year Bachelor's programme at the Royal Conservatoire represents 240 ECTS; a two-year Master's programme represents 120 ECTS. The annual study load is therefore $60 \times 28 = 1680$ hours of study. This can be self-study, but lessons, rehearsals and the like also count towards the study load. ECTS is the abbreviation of European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System. The system is used by all European institutions of higher education so that the study load of programmes can be compared.

Grading scale

The results you earn for a course are expressed by means of a grading scale. We adopt four grading scales:

- qualifying result: extremely poor, very poor, poor, very unsatisfactory, unsatisfactory, satisfactory, more than satisfactory, good, very good, excellent
- numeric result: from 0 to 10, with a maximum of one figure after the decimal point
- participation result: participation sufficient / participation insufficient
- pass/fail

The grading scale can vary from one course and study year to another – you will find the relevant grading scale in the course description.

OSIRIS

OSIRIS is the educational registration system used by the Conservatoire to track your results (see also chapter B of this study guide).

OSIRIS code

Every course has a unique code in OSIRIS. You can find this code in your curriculum overview, in the course description and in your Study Progress Overview.

OSIRIS Student

OSIRIS Student is a system that allows you to monitor your progress with the study programme, register for electives and minors, apply for exemptions and keep track of your study results, all online.

PM & pm

'PM' is short for Practicum Musicae, a study programme for students from Leiden University. In your curriculum overview you might find the term 'pm' attached to a course. This stands for 'pro memorie' and signifies that while that particular course is part of your curriculum, no credits are awarded for it.

Programme objectives

Every programme has programme objectives (eindtermen), also referred to as learning outcomes, a description of the minimum that you must know and be able to do by the time you complete the programme. The Conservatoire has formulated programme objectives at Bachelor's and Master's level for each department, based on the Learning Outcomes of the European Association of Conservatoires (AEC). You will find the programme objectives in the Curriculum Handbook. The individual course descriptions have their own course objectives, but also refer to the relevant programme objectives.

Semesters

The academic year is divided into two semesters: one runs from September to January and the other from February to June. The academic year comprises 34 weeks of individual lessons in the main subject and 36 weeks of group lessons.

Specialisation

A specialisation is an additional component that is offered in some disciplines within a programme. Students wishing to follow a specialisation are required to do a separate audition.

Study programme

Your study programme is the complete set of courses that constitutes the curriculum of your programme. On successful completion of the entire study programme, you will be awarded a degree.

Study Progress Overview

The Study Progress Overview (known by the Dutch abbreviation svo) is a record of the courses you have completed and how many credits you have obtained, as well as the courses that you have still to complete. You will find your Study Progress Overview in OSIRIS Student.
